2232. Mrs C.L. Edwardes to the Minister for the Environment

I refer the Minister to the appointment of PPK Environmental and Infrastructure as consultants to the Water and Rivers Commission and ask -

(f) who are the Directors of PPK Environmental and Infrastructure (PPK);

(g) on how many occasions have PPK been engaged in a consultancy for the Water and Rivers Commission;

(h) what projects did the consultancy relate to and what was the cost of each consultancy;

(i) did PPK tender for each consultancy; and

(j) if not, why not?

2233. Mrs C.L. Edwardes to the Minister for the Environment

I refer the Minister to the Water Resource Management Strategy for the Jandakot Structure Plan and ask -

(a) when was the Jandakot Structure Plan (JSP) referred to the Water and Rivers Commission for assessment of the Water Resource Management Strategy (WRMS);

(k) at what stage is the WRMS assessment of the Jandakot Structure Plan; and

(l) what is the reason for the length of time taken for this assessment?

2234. Mrs C.L. Edwardes to the Minister for Planning and Infrastructure

I refer the Minister to the Town of Kwinana Town Planning Scheme, Scheme Amendment 76 and ask-

(a) when was the Kwinana Scheme Amendment 76 received by the Department of Planning and Infrastructure (DPI);

(m) what was the process followed by the DPI in relation to the Kwinana Scheme Amendment 76; and

(n) what was the elapsed time between DPI completing their investigation and the amendment being sent to the Minister for approval?

2235. Mrs C.L. Edwardes to the Minister for Consumer and Employment Protection

I refer the Minister to the answer to question on notice No. 1941 and ask -

(a) what was the purpose of the payment to Gadens Lawyers, Perth, for $230.56, made on 14 November 2002;

(o) who approved the payment;

(p) what other payments have been made to Gadens Lawyers, Perth, since February 2001 from your Ministerial Office or staff, using a taxpayer funded corporate credit card;

(q) since February 2001, which other lawyers have received payments from the Ministerial Office or staff, using a taxpayer funded corporate credit card;

(r) what was the date, amount and purpose of each of these transactions; and

(s) in each case, who authorised the payment?

2236. Mr S.R. Hill to the Minister for Education and Training

(1) Will the Minister advise if the music program at Governor Stirling Senior High School is to cease in 2004?

(6) If so, why?

(7) How many students participated in the music program this year?

(8) How many country students participated in the music program last year?

(9) Will any other schools undertake the program next year?

2237. Mr J.L. Bradshaw to the Minister for Education and Training

(1) Has there been a change of policy for State Schools to purchase goods or services?

(2) What is the current policy for State Schools to purchase goods or services?

(3) Is there discretion on the part of the State School if, for example, there is only one hardware store in a country town?

2238. Mr B.K. Masters to the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries

(1) Why has the Forests Products Commission (FPC) decided to log the trees that are to be removed within Ludlow State forest as part of Cable Sands (WA) Pty Ltd's mining operation, rather than allow them to be auctioned as standing timber?

(2) Why has the FPC decided to transport the harvested logs to Harvey when this will add approximately $20 per tonne to the production cost of the logs?

(3) If the logs are to be harvested rather than sold as standing timber, why has the FPC decided not to have an on-site auction rather than an auction at Harvey, thereby saving transport costs?

2239. Mr C.J. Barnett to the Premier

I refer the Premier to the answer to question on notice No. 700 of 2003 and ask –

(a) how many inquiries, taskforces, committees, summits, symposiums and reviews have the Government initiated since the above question was answered (that is, not including any inquiries, taskforces, committees, summits, symposiums and reviews detailed in the answer to the above question);

(b) will the Premier provide a comprehensive list of the above inquiries, taskforces, committees, summits, symposiums and reviews across all portfolios and a brief outline of what each of them was established to achieve; and

(c) will the Premier advise how much money has been spent on each of the above inquiries, taskforces, committees, summits and reviews?

2240. Mr P.G. Pendal to the Treasurer

I refer to representations made on behalf of my constituents the Ellis' who have been forced to pay approximately $22,000 in stamp duty twice for the one transaction involving the purchase of Lot 131 'The Cutting' Mosman Park from Landcorp and ask -

(a) does the Treasurer and the Office of Revenue acknowledge that there was no benefit gained in re-writing the contract, which was the action which drew the impost of the second lot of stamp duty for the same transaction;

(b) is it correct that the Office of State Revenue has, according to the Ellis' solicitor, declined to give any written reason for the application of two lots of stamp duty other than to merely state that it believed its assessment was the correct one;

(c) if 'yes' will the Treasurer insist that, on the grounds of accountability and transparency, the Office of Revenue give a full and frank written explanation;

(d) is it correct that previous decisions touching on similar matters have been made in favour of the taxpayer, thus indicating that the Commissioner does have discretion in such matters;

(e) if 'yes' to (d) will the Treasurer table all such precedents minus identifying data, and advise why the discretion was not used in the Ellis case; and

(f) will the Treasurer consider amendments to the Act to ensure that no taxpayer can in future be charged stamp duty twice for the same transaction, given that the Ellis' are not seeking to pay less than their obligations, but are resentful of having to pay double?

2241. Mrs C.L. Edwardes to the Minister for Consumer and Employment Protection

I refer the Minister to the answer to question on notice No. 1509 of 2002 and ask -

(a) since February 2002, has the Minister received any approaches or requests from the 'Building Trades Licensing Group', or similar organisation, proposing a licensing regime for building trades;

(b) what was the Minister's response and, if in writing, will the Minister table a copy of the correspondence;

(c) does the Minister propose to introduce a licensing regime for building trades; and

(d) if yes, which respective trades does the Minister propose to licence and why?

2242. Mr M.G. House to the Minister representing the Minister for Government Enterprises

(1) In the last six months, has the Water Corporation encountered problems treating the volume of sewerage entering the Timewell Road Treatment Plant at Albany, necessitating it to discharge primary treated and/or untreated waste water onto land in the immediate vicinity of the treatment plant?

(2) If yes, approximately how many litres of this effluent/water was pumped on to the above mentioned land?

(3) Did any of this effluent/water eventually find its way into Seven Mile Creek?

(4) At what stage of treatment was the effluent/water when it was pumped onto the land?

(5) Was the EPA or Waters and Rivers Commission notified that effluent was being pumped from the Timewell Road Treatment Plant onto adjacent land and not to the Gunn Road Tree Farm?

(6) If yes, what was the response and/or advice received from the EPA and Waters and Rivers Commission?

(7) Does the Minister expect any environmental issues, such as algal blooms, to develop as a result of this effluent/water being pumped out of the treatment ponds?

2243. Mr A.D. Marshall to the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries

I refer to the Agriculture Act 1988 which states that the Agricultural Commission must conduct a flower industry postal poll, and the response from the flower producers that the list of eligible producers is incorrect and includes names of people that are deceased, are no longer in the industry, are aligned but do not grow flowers, bush pickers and growers who do not qualify due to the $20,000 minimum farm gate requirement and ask -

(a) how was the current producers list prepared and by whom;

(b) will a new list be prepared;

(c) will the new list provide proof of eligibility and ensure that all eligible producers that are on the list are eligible producers, conforming to the criteria as set out by the Returning Officers; and

(d) will the Minister address the accuracy of the current eligible producers list and postpone the poll until such time as a correct list is prepared or not proceed with the conduct of a flower industry poll?
