

SOUTH FREMANTLE SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL AND JOHN CURTIN COLLEGE OF THE ARTS

462. Hon MATT BENSON-LIDHOLM to the minister representing the Minister for Education:

- (1) How many teachers are employed at the South Fremantle Senior High School and the John Curtin College of the Arts?
- (2) What is the current enrolment at each of these schools?
- (3) What is the projected enrolment at each of these schools for the 2010 school year?
- (4) On the basis of these projections, how many teachers will be employed at each of these schools?

Hon PETER COLLIER replied:

I thank the honourable member for some notice of this question. On behalf of the Minister for Education I provide the following response —

South Fremantle Senior High School —

- (1) South Fremantle teaching staff, 37.78 full-time equivalents.
- (2) Current enrolment, 474 students.
- (3) Projected numbers have not been established for 2010. This process is currently underway and will be influenced by local enrolments as well as academic talent program enrolments.
- (4) Until enrolments for secondary schools have been established, the extent of staff allocation cannot be determined.

John Curtin College of the Arts —

- (1) John Curtin College of the Arts teaching staff, 75.2 FTEs.
- (2) Current enrolment, 1019 students.
- (3) John Curtin college is a fully selective arts college and entry to the college is through the gifted and talented selection process. This process is currently being conducted for access to the college in 2010 across the state and the projected numbers will not be available until later in the year.
- (4) The projected staff numbers cannot be calculated until this central process for student selection is completed.
