

POLICE — HEADQUARTERS

3248. Hon Tjorn Sibma to the minister representing the Minister for Police:

In relation to plans for a new police force headquarters, I ask:

- (a) will the proposed new headquarters be owned and built by Western Australia Police Force/Government;
- (b) will the proposed new headquarters be leased from the private sector;
- (c) what is/are the potential locations of the proposed headquarters;
- (d) if a decision has been made to pursue own and build, what is the expected cost of this development; and
- (e) can the Minister please provide the business case for the proposed new police headquarters?

Hon Stephen Dawson replied:

The Western Australian Police Force advise:

- (a) No decision has been made on the provision of a new Western Australia Police Force Headquarters.
- (b) See (a).
- (c) See (a).
- (d) See (a).
- (e) The Department of Finance has the lead for the development of the business case in collaboration with the WA Police Force. Further deliberations are yet to be undertaken.
