

SUNDAY TRADING FOR LIQUOR STORES

79. Hon BARRY HOUSE to the Minister for Racing and Gaming:

Does the Government intend to introduce Sunday trading for liquor stores?

Hon N.D. GRIFFITHS replied:

The Government gave a number of commitments to the people of Western Australia before the election. It was stated that a Labor Government would be opposed to Sunday trading for liquor stores. That is the Government's position and it honours its commitments.
