

FILMS AND COMPUTER GAMES, REVIEW OF CLASSIFICATION GUIDELINES

986. Hon. C.L. Edwardes to the Attorney General

What consultative process will be put in place to assist the Attorney General in determining the views of the community on the Review of the Classification Guidelines for Films and Computer Games?

Mr McGINTY replied:

Details of the Review were advertised in The West Australian on Saturday, 1 September 2001. Members of the public have been given two months in which to make their submissions.

Attached is a copy of the advertisement for your convenience. [See paper No 578.]

Submissions received from interested persons will be collated and analysed by the Office of Film and Literature Classification.
