

DEPARTMENT OF FISHERIES — CONTRACTORS

1622. Mr D.J. Kelly to the minister representing the Minister for Fisheries:

Does the Department of Fisheries currently outsource any work to contractors, and if so:

- (a) what is the nature of this work;
- (b) how many people have been contracted to carry out the work;
- (c) which companies have been awarded the work; and
- (d) through what process(es) was the work awarded?

Mr T.R. Buswell replied:

The Department of Fisheries does currently outsource work to contractors.

- (a) Temporary, short term and urgent / time-sensitive work.
- (b) 16. This figure is for the end of November. Due to the time lag between work being performed and invoices received, it is not possible at this date to give an accurate figure as at 5 December 2013.
- (c) Chandler MacLeod Group Ltd
Datacom Systems (WA) Pty Ltd
Gel Group Pty Ltd
Infor Global Solutions (ANZ) Pty Ltd
IntegraNet Technology Group
Kelly Services (Australia) Ltd
Ross Human Directions Ltd
- (d) The contracting companies were sourced through the Department of Finance's Common Use Agreement. Individuals from the companies were selected based on their resumes.
