

POLICE OFFICERS, NUMBER

2138. Hon Derrick Tomlinson to the Minister for Housing and Works representing the Minister for Police and Emergency Services
- (1) Can the Minister advise the recommended authorised strength in terms of ‘full time equivalent’ (FTEs) of the Western Australian Police Service as at January 31 2001?
 - (2) Can the Minister advise the recommended authorised strength in terms of FTEs of the Western Australian Police Service as at July 1 2001?
 - (3) Can the Minister advise the recommended authorised strength in terms of FTEs of the Western Australian Police Service as at May 31 2004?
 - (4) Can the Minister advise the actual strength (not FTEs) in terms of sworn police officers that were employed by the Western Australian Government as at January 31 2001?
 - (5) Can the Minister advise the actual strength (not FTEs) in terms of sworn police officers that were employed by the Western Australian Police Service as at July 1 2001?
 - (6) Can the Minister advise the actual strength (not FTEs) in terms of sworn police officers that were employed by the Western Australian Police Service as at May 31 2004?
 - (7) Can the Minister advise the actual strength in terms of FTEs sworn police officers that were employed by the Western Australian Police Service as at January 31 2001?
 - (8) Can the Minister advise the actual strength in terms of FTEs sworn police officers that were employed by the Western Australian Police Service as at July 1 2001?
 - (9) Can the Minister advise the actual strength in terms of FTEs sworn police officers that were employed by the Western Australian Police Service as at May 31 2004?

Hon NICK GRIFFITHS replied:

- (1)-(9) The Western Australia Police Service advise as follows:

	AUTHORISED STRENGTH HEADCOUNT	ACTUAL LEVEL (FTE)	EMPLOYMENT (NON-FTE)
31 January 2001	4812	4827	4880
30 June 2001	4811	4920	4993
31 May 2004	4985	5005	5114

Please note that the information has been provided as at 30 June 2001 rather than 1 July 2001 as the Police Service’s reports are run at the end of each calendar month.