

BIODIVERSITY, CONSERVATION AND ATTRACTIONS — RECOVERY PLANS

738. Hon TJORN SIBMA to the minister representing Minister for Environment:

Following that rather scrambled answer, I ask my question without notice of which some has been given to the Minister for Emergency Services representing the Minister for Environment, dated Tuesday, 16 August.

Hon Alannah MacTiernan: Like your egg, mate.

Hon TJORN SIBMA: She is still trying to unscramble the omelette, President. I am just trying to finish the question. Several members interjected.

The PRESIDENT: Order! Take a deep breath.

Hon TJORN SIBMA: Thank you. I refer to the Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions' management of threatened species and ecological communities.

- (1) How many existing recovery plans have been reviewed by DBCA since 2017?
- (2) Regarding question (1), please advise which plans were reviewed and when.
- (3) How many new recovery plans have been drafted by DBCA since 2017?
- (4) Regarding question (3), please advise which plans and when.

Hon STEPHEN DAWSON replied:

I thank the honourable member for some notice of the question. The following answer has been provided by the Minister for Environment.

- (1) There have been 78.
- (2) I table the attached document.
- (3) There have been 27.
- (4) I table the attached document.
