

BANDYUP PRISON — CURRENT INMATES

1998. Hon Sally Talbot to the Attorney General representing the Minister for Corrective Services:

How many women are currently being held at Bandyup prison in each security classification:

- (a) on remand, awaiting a court appearance;
- (b) newly-sentenced prisoners awaiting assessment; and
- (c) women completing their sentence?

Hon Michael Mischin replied:

The Department of Corrective Services advises, as at 20 October 2014:

- (a) 121 prisoners on remand awaiting a court appearance. In addition there were 32 sentenced prisoners awaiting a court appearance for other charges.

For clarification, the sentence status of a prisoner can't be both remand and sentenced at the same time. A sentenced prisoner may have an active remand warrant requiring a subsequent court appearance, however this will relate to a separate offence (i.e. the sentence status of the prisoner remains 'sentenced' while the matter is progressed).

Remand and sentenced prisoners awaiting a court appearance: Maximum — 17, Medium — 119, Minimum — 17

Remand prisoners awaiting a court appearance: Maximum — 13, Medium — 93, Minimum — 15

Sentenced prisoners awaiting a court appearance: Maximum — 4, Medium — 26, Minimum — 2

- (b) Maximum — 0, Medium — 6, Minimum — 3
- (c) Maximum — 15, Medium — 128, Minimum — 43
