

GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS, ALLEGED MISCONDUCT

584. Hon BARRY HOUSE to the Minister for Education and Training:

- (1) How many cases relating to alleged misconduct in state government schools are outstanding?
- (2) As a result of these cases, how many staff have been removed from schools and are located in district or central education offices?
- (3) Will the minister detail -
 - (a) who these people are - if they cannot be named, which school have they been removed from - and their salary;
 - (b) where they are located;
 - (c) what their duties are; and
 - (d) when they were relocated from their schools?

Hon LJILJANNA RAVLICH replied:

I thank the member for some notice of this question. The information required cannot be provided in the time available. Therefore I request that the honourable member place his question on notice.