

PRISONERS — YOUTH DETENTION HISTORY

881. Hon Peter Collier to the parliamentary secretary representing the Minister for Corrective Services:

For the prisoner population in each of Western Australia's prisons in 2019, 2020, 2021 and 2022 to date, how many have previously spent time at Banksia Hill Detention Centre?

Hon Matthew Swinbourn replied:

See table 1.

Table 1: Average daily population of adult prisoners, by facility, in each given calendar year, who had previously spent time in youth custody at Banksia Hill Detention Centre

Facility	Calendar Year
	2019	2020	2021	2022

N.B. 2022 covers the period 1 Jan 2022 to 4 Sep 2022 inclusive. Includes only those offenders who spent time at Banksia Hill Detention Centre and does not include those who may have spent time at Rangeview Remand Centre. The privately operated Melaleuca Remand and Reintegration Facility became the publicly operated Melaleuca Women's Prison in 2020, hence two records for that year.
