

CURRICULUM COUNCIL, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

487. Hon BARRY HOUSE to the Minister for Education and Training:

I understand that Mrs Norma Jeffery took leave from her position as the chief executive officer of the Curriculum Council at the beginning of July and has recently resumed her duties. Can the minister confirm that, in the meantime, Mr Greg Robson has been appointed to this position? If so, are there now two people doing the same job, or has Mrs Jeffery been removed from her position?

Hon LJILJANNA RAVLICH replied:

Norma Jeffery, the chief executive officer of the Curriculum Council, had sought leave some six weeks ago because she has a longstanding arrangement for a vacation. I understand she went overseas. During that time, Mr Greg Robson was appointed to act in the position so that the work of the Curriculum Council could be progressed.
