

OFFICE OF CLIMATE CHANGE — STAFFING

439. Hon SALLY TALBOT to the Minister for Environment:

How many staff were employed at the Office of Climate Change and what were their job descriptions as at the following dates—1 June 2008, 1 June 2009 and 1 June 2010?

Hon DONNA FARAGHER replied:

I thank the member for some notice of this question.

In June 2008, 16 staff were employed in the Office of Climate Change with job descriptions as follows: senior/principal economist; three project managers; program manager, carbon accounting; principal policy officer; policy research officer; four policy officers; policy officer, adaptation; two personal assistants; manager, climate change policy; and director.

In June 2009, 14 staff were employed in the Office of Climate Change with job descriptions as follows: technical specialist officer; senior/principal economist; research assistant; project officer; project manager; program manager, carbon accounting; four policy officers; policy officer — adaptation; personal assistant; environmental officer; and director.

In June 2010, 16 staff were employed in the Office of Climate Change with job descriptions as follows: technical specialist officer; senior/principal economist; research and administration officer; project officer; two project managers; three program managers, carbon accounting; principal policy officer; two policy officers; policy officer — adaptation; personal assistant; manager, climate change policy; and director.