

MENTAL HEALTH BILL 2013 — PRIORITY

941. Hon SALLY TALBOT to the Minister for Mental Health:

I refer to the minister's promise in May 2013 that the new Mental Health Bill would be introduced as a priority this year. Why has the minister broken that promise?

Hon HELEN MORTON replied:

Obviously the Mental Health Bill has been introduced, as has the consequential legislation. The Mental Health Bill has been tabled in the Legislative Assembly. The bill has been tabled; so, no, there is no broken promise at all.
