

VACANT LAND - VALUATION

810. Hon BARRY HOUSE to the minister representing the Treasurer:

Why are vacant blocks of land allocated a different valuation from built residences, which allows local authorities to strike rates for vacant lots that are significantly higher than those for neighbouring built residences?

Hon LJILJANNA RAVLICH replied:

I advise the member that the response to that question is not in my file, and I will make every endeavour to chase it up.