

GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES, RECLASSIFICATION OF POSITIONS

538. Hon C L Edwardes to the Deputy Premier; Treasurer; Minister for Energy

- (1) Since the 2001 February State Election, for departments, agencies and statutory authorities under the control of the Deputy Premier, will the Minister provide the number of reclassification of positions that have occurred?
- (2) The annual salary for the position prior to reclassification?
- (3) The annual salary for the position post reclassification?
- (4) The classification level of the position prior to reclassification?
- (5) The classification level of the position post reclassification?
- (6) The title of the position prior to reclassification?
- (7) The title of the position post classification?
- (8) The name of the department, agency or statutory authority for each of the reclassified positions?
- (9) Of the number of positions reclassified, how many public sector employees received the benefit of the reclassification through promotion?
- (10) How many of the above promotions were published in Intersector?

Mr RIPPER replied:

Departments, agencies and statutory authorities under the Deputy Premier's control as defined under the Public Sector Management Act 1994 as at 27 June 2001:

Office of Energy

- (1) None
- (2)-(10) Not applicable

Minerals and Energy Research Institute

- (1)-(10) None

WA Treasury Corporation

- (1) None
- (2)-(10) Not applicable

Office of the Auditor General

- (1) None
- (2)-(10) Not applicable

Gold Corporation

For Gold Corporation and its subsidiaries:

This question is directed at public sector agencies employing the public sector job classification system.

Gold Corporation is a stand-alone commercial operation, is self-funding and sets its own staffing levels. Gold Corporation does not use the public sector job classification system or salary levels. Staff are recruited from the private sector for commercial purposes and return there when they leave.

International Centre for the Application of Solar Energy

- (1) The International Centre for the Application of Solar Energy (CASE) staff are normally employed by contract of employment, and are not public sector employees. No reclassification of positions has occurred since February 2001.
- (2)-(10) Not applicable.

Office of Gas Access Regulation

- (1) None
- (2)-(10) Not applicable

Treasury

- (1) None

(2)-(10) Not applicable
