

SUSTAINABLE TRANSPORT COMMITTEE

466. Hon MATT BENSON-LIDHOLM to the minister representing the Minister for Planning:

I refer to the WA Planning Commission's sustainable transport committee.

- (1) Who are the members of the committee and who do they represent?
- (2) When does each member's term expire?
- (3) How often has committee met since 23 September 2008?
- (4) Are its members paid; and, if yes, how much?

Hon HELEN MORTON replied:

I thank the honourable member for some notice of this question. The following information has been provided to me by the Minister for Planning.

- (1)–(2) The members of the committee are: Gary Prattley, Chairman, Western Australian Planning Commission, term of appointment 7 April 2009 to 20 April 2013; Eric Lumsden, Director General, Department of Planning, term of appointment ex-officio; Reece Waldock, Director General, Department of Transport—WAPC nominee—term of appointment ex-officio; Nicole Lockwood, nominee of the Minister for Regional Development, term of appointment expires 31 January 2010; Menno Henneveld, Commissioner of Main Roads WA, term of appointment ex-officio; Mayor Carol Adams, local government representative, term of appointment expires 31 January 2012; Alexandra Piper, WAPC nominee, term of appointment formally expired 31 December 2006—legislation allows for the continuation of membership; and Professor Carey Curtis, WAPC nominee, term of appointment formally expired on 31 December 2006—the legislation allows for continuation of membership.
- (3) Four times.
- (4) Yes. Remuneration is $540 per meeting for the chairman and $350 per meeting for members.
