

AUSTRALIAN LIQUOR, HOSPITALITY AND MISCELLANEOUS WORKERS UNION SEMINAR,
ATTENDANCE BY PUBLIC SERVANTS

1328. Hon. C.L. Edwardes to the Minister for Consumer and Employment Protection

I refer to the answer to question without notice No. 590, concerning public servants attending a 2 day seminar conducted by the Australian Liquor, Hospitality and Miscellaneous Workers Union and ask -

- (a) how many staff attended the two day seminar;
- (b) what were the titles and classifications of those staff who attended;
- (c) what payment was made to the Union for the attendance of the staff;
- (d) were there any other costs associated with the attendance of this seminar, and if so what and for how much;
- (e) will the Minister provide a list of the order of proceedings of the seminar and the names of each of the speakers for each item; and
- (f) where was the seminar held?

Mr KOBELKE replied:

- (a) 14
- (b)

Executive Director	Group 2
Assistant Director	Level 8
Manager Compliance	Level 6
Industrial Inspector x 2	Level 5
Industrial Inspector	Level 4
Industrial Inspector x 3	Level 3
Wageline Knowledge Coordinator	Level 3
Wageline Enquiry Officer x 3	Level 2
Workplace Adviser	Level 3
- (c) $1200
- (d) No
- (e)

I do not intend to provide a list of proceedings or names of speakers. However, the sessions included: services provided by the union to members; discussion on experiences relating to the prosecution process; negotiations in practice; award compliance within the industries covered by the union; emerging issues in relation to employment practices; other operational and technical issues; discussion on public perceptions of the union movement; and a history of the union in summary.

Speakers at the session included senior union officials, industrial organisers and workplace delegates. All sessions were based on a discussion format providing opportunity for members of the department to learn about compliance processes used by the union.
- (f) Training Room, Australian Liquor Hospitality and Miscellaneous Workers Union, 61 Thomas Road, Subiaco.