

CURRICULUM COUNCIL, STAFF CHANGES

513. Hon BARRY HOUSE to the Minister for Education and Training:

I refer to the recent staff changes at the Curriculum Council.

- (1) Will the minister inform the house what Mrs Norma Jeffery will do in her new role and whether she will retain the full salary and conditions that applied to her position as Chief Executive Officer of the Curriculum Council?
- (2) Will the minister clarify the current role and the future for Mrs Therese Temby?

Hon Ljiljanna Ravlich: Who is Therese Temby?

Several members interjected.

The PRESIDENT: Order!

Hon LJILJANNA RAVLICH replied:

- (1)-(2) Mrs Therese Temby is the chair of the Curriculum Council. As of today, she is still the chair of the Curriculum Council. If the member has some information, perhaps he could put it on the public record. To the best of my knowledge, she is the chair of the Curriculum Council.

Hon Barry House: What about the first part of the question. Mr President, can I repeat the first part of that question?

The PRESIDENT: No. Does the member have another question?

Hon Ljiljanna Ravlich interjected.

The PRESIDENT: Order, members! Does Hon Barry House have another question?

Hon BARRY HOUSE: Will the minister inform the house what Mrs Norma Jeffery will do in her new role and whether she will retain the full salary and conditions that applied to her position as the CEO of the Curriculum Council?

The PRESIDENT: Order! The minister has sat down. She has already given the answer she proposed to give to the second part of the question that the member asked. Does the member have a third question?

Hon Barry House: No. She did not answer my first one.

The PRESIDENT: That is a matter for debate.
