(1A) It is a term of an on-site home agreement that —

- (a) a long-stay tenant may affix either or both of the following items to a wall of the on-site home the subject of the agreement for the purpose of ensuring the safety of a child or other vulnerable person, but only with the park operator's consent —
 - (i) furniture;
 - (ii) a thing to affix the furniture to the wall;
 and
 - (b) the park operator may only refuse consent —
 - (i) if affixing the item to the wall would disturb material containing asbestos; or
 - (ii) for a prescribed reason;
 and
 - (c) unless the park operator agrees otherwise in writing, the tenant must remove the item from the wall when the tenant vacates the on-site home and either —
 - (i) restore the wall to its original condition (taking into account fair wear and tear); or
 - (ii) compensate the park operator for any reasonable expenses incurred by the park operator in doing that restoration;
 and
 - (d) the cost of affixing the item to the wall, removing it and restoring the wall to its original condition, must be borne by the tenant; and
 - (e) if the tenant causes damage to the on-site home when affixing or removing the item or restoring the wall to its original condition —
 - (i) the tenant must notify the park operator in writing that damage has been caused to the on-site home; and
 - (ii) the park operator may require the tenant to repair the damage and restore the on-site home to its original condition (taking into account fair wear and tear) or compensate the park operator for the reasonable expenses incurred in doing the repair and restoration.
- (1B) The park operator is taken to have consented to affixing the furniture or thing to the wall of the on-site home under subsection (1A)(a) if —
- (a) the tenant has, in writing, sought the park operator's consent to affix the item to the wall; and
 - (b) the park operator has not refused consent under subsection (1A)(b) within 7 days after the day the tenant sought the park operator's consent.

 - (b) in any event, if it is necessary to prevent the commission of family violence that the tenant suspects, on reasonable grounds, is likely to be committed by the person against the tenant or a dependant of the tenant.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5) —
- (a) the cost of making the prescribed alterations must be borne by the long-stay tenant; and
 - (b) the long-stay tenant must give written notice to the park operator of the tenant's intention to make the prescribed alterations; and
 - (c) work on the prescribed alterations must be undertaken by a qualified tradesperson, a copy of whose invoice the long-stay tenant must provide to the park operator within 14 days of the alterations being completed; and
 - (d) the prescribed alterations must be effected having regard to the age and character of the property and any applicable strata company by-laws; and
 - (e) the long-stay tenant must restore the agreed premises to their original condition at the end of the long-stay agreement if the park operator requires the tenant to do so and, where restoration work has been undertaken by a tradesperson, must provide to the park operator a copy of that tradesperson's invoice within 14 days of that work being performed.

71A. Orders to terminate agreement for repeated interference with quiet enjoyment or threats or abuse

- (1) In this section, a long-stay tenant, or the tenant’s guest, engages in serious misconduct when the tenant or the tenant’s guest —
 - (a) repeatedly interferes, or has repeatedly interfered, with another tenant’s quiet enjoyment of the residential park; or
 - (b) seriously or persistently threatens or abuses, or has seriously or persistently threatened or abused, the park operator or the park operator’s employee.
- (2) A park operator may apply to the State Administrative Tribunal to terminate a long-stay agreement because the long-stay tenant, or the tenant’s guest, has engaged in serious misconduct.
- (3) The State Administrative Tribunal may make an order terminating the long-stay agreement if the tribunal is satisfied of all of the following —
 - (a) the long-stay tenant, or the tenant’s guest, has engaged in serious misconduct;
 - (b) the park operator has given a notice to the long-stay tenant in an approved form that asks the tenant, or the tenant’s guest, to stop engaging in the serious misconduct;
 - (c) despite being asked to stop engaging in the serious misconduct, the long-stay tenant or the tenant’s guest has not stopped engaging in the serious misconduct;
 - (d) terminating the agreement is justified in all the circumstances.
- (4) However, the State Administrative Tribunal may refuse to make an order if satisfied that the park operator was wholly or partly motivated to give the notice by the fact that the long-stay tenant had complained to a public authority about the park operator’s conduct in relation to the long-stay agreement, or taken steps to secure or enforce the tenant’s rights under the agreement.
- (5) If the State Administrative Tribunal makes the order, it must also order the long-stay tenant to give vacant possession of the agreed premises to the park operator when the tribunal orders.
