but if one of 2 or more persons fitting that description has been nominated for the purposes of subsection (2) it means only the person nominated.

(2) If a vehicle is owned by more than one person and one of those persons is nominated by all such persons, by notice in writing given to the CEO, then for the purposes of a road law, the nominated person is to be taken to be the owner of the vehicle.

6. Person responsible for vehicle

   (1) In this section —

   licence holder, in relation to a vehicle, means a person in whose name the vehicle is licensed;

   licensed, in relation to a vehicle, means licensed under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012, registered under the Control of Vehicles (Off-road Areas) Act 1978 or licensed or registered under a law of another jurisdiction corresponding to either of those Acts.

   (2) For the purposes of a road law a person responsible for a vehicle is —

   (a) if the vehicle is licensed — any licence holder who has not given a notice as described in paragraph (b); or

   (b) if a licence holder has given notice under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 10(1), or a law of another jurisdiction corresponding to that provision, of a change in ownership of the vehicle and subsection (3) does not apply — the new owner as specified in the notice or, if more than one is specified, each of them; or

   (c) if the vehicle is not licensed but was previously licensed and subsection (3) does not apply — a person responsible under paragraph (a) or (b) before the vehicle last ceased to be licensed; or

   (d) in any other case —

   (i) the person who is entitled to the immediate possession of the vehicle; or

   (ii) if there are several persons entitled to its immediate possession, the person whose entitlement is paramount.

   (3) Despite subsection (2), a person is not responsible for a vehicle under subsection (2)(b), if it can be shown that the person did not agree to becoming an owner of the vehicle and has notified the CEO in writing accordingly or has given a notice to a similar effect to another Australian driver licensing authority.

   *[Section 6 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 232.]

Part 2 — Administration — general matters

8. Delegation of CEO’s functions

(1) The CEO may delegate to a person any power or duty of the CEO under another provision of a road law.

(2) The delegation must be in writing signed by the CEO.

(3) If a person is not employed in the department of the Public Service principally assisting in the administration of this Act, a power or duty can only be delegated to the person under this section if the person has been approved by the Minister for the purposes of this section.

(4) An approval under subsection (3) may be given in respect of —

   (a) a specified person or persons of a specified class; or
   (b) the holder or holders for the time being of a specified office or class of office.

(5) Despite subsection (3), the CEO may delegate to the Commissioner of Main Roads the power to give specific or standing instructions requiring the moving of vehicles for the purposes of the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 64(1)(b) or 65(1)(b).

(6) A person to whom a power or duty is delegated under this section cannot delegate that power or duty.

(7) A person exercising or performing a power or duty that has been delegated to the person under this section, is to be taken to do so in accordance with the terms of the delegation unless the contrary is shown.

(8) Nothing in this section limits the ability of the CEO to perform a function through an officer or agent.

   [Section 8 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 209.]

9. Delegation of functions of Commissioner of Police

(1) The Commissioner of Police may delegate to —

   (a) a specified police officer; or
   (b) a police officer of a specified class; or
s. 10

(c) a person who is employed in the department of the Public Service principally assisting in the administration of the Police Act 1892, any power or duty of the Commissioner under another provision of a road law.

(2) The delegation must be in writing signed by the Commissioner of Police.

(3) A person to whom a power or duty is delegated under this section cannot delegate that power or duty.

(4) A person exercising or performing a power or duty that has been delegated to the person under this section, is to be taken to do so in accordance with the terms of the delegation unless the contrary is shown.

(5) Nothing in this section limits the ability of the Commissioner of Police to perform a function through an officer or agent.

10. Delegation of functions of Commissioner of Main Roads

(1) The Commissioner of Main Roads may delegate to a person appointed under the Main Roads Act 1930 section 10(1) to be an officer of the Commissioner or to a police officer a power or duty of the Commissioner under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 4, including any regulation made under or for the purposes of that Part.

(2) The delegation must be in writing signed by the Commissioner of Main Roads.

(3) A person to whom a power or duty is delegated under this section cannot delegate that power or duty.

(4) A person exercising or performing a power or duty that has been delegated to the person under this section, is to be taken to do so in accordance with the terms of the delegation unless the contrary is shown.

(5) Nothing in this section limits the ability of the Commissioner of Main Roads to perform a function through an officer or agent.

[Section 10 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 232.]
11. Agreements for performance of functions

   (1) The CEO may enter into an agreement providing for the CEO’s functions under a road law that are described in the agreement to be performed on behalf of the CEO.

   (2) The agreement may be with the Commissioner of Police, a local government, or any other person or body, whether or not the person or body has itself functions of a public nature.

   (3) A function described in the agreement may be performed —
      (a) in accordance with the agreement; and
      (b) on and subject to terms and conditions in the agreement.

   (4) If the performance of a function is dependent upon the opinion, belief, or state of mind of the CEO it may be performed under the agreement upon the opinion, belief, or state of mind of the body or person with whom the agreement is made or another person provided for in the agreement.

   (5A) The CEO may disclose the following information to the body or person with whom the agreement is made if the CEO considers that the information is required for the purposes of performing a function under the agreement —
      (a) driver’s licence information;
      (b) permit information;
      (c) vehicle licence information;
      (da) optional plates information;
      (d) demerit points information;
      (e) instructor information.

   (5) For the purposes of this Act or any other written law, an act or thing done by, to, by reference to, or in relation to, a body or person in connection with the performance by that body or person under the agreement of a function of the CEO is as effectual as if it had been done by, to, by reference to or in relation to, the CEO.

[Section 16A inserted by No. 8 of 2012 s. 213.]

16. Information about new motor vehicles

(1) A person who manufactures or distributes a new type of motor vehicle that is manufactured in, or imported into, the State must provide to the CEO such of the following information as is known to the person and requested by the CEO —

(a) particulars of the construction of the vehicle;
(b) the vehicle’s unloaded mass;
(c) the vehicle’s GVM;
(d) the vehicle’s GCM.

Penalty: a fine of 16 PU.
s. 17

(2) In subsection (1)(b) —

unloaded mass means the mass of the vehicle in running order, equipped with all standard equipment and with all fuel and other fluid reservoirs filled to nominal capacity, but unoccupied and without any other load.

17. Reciprocal powers of officers

(1) This section has effect in relation to another jurisdiction while a law of the other jurisdiction contains provisions corresponding to this section.

(2) The Minister to whom the administration of a particular road law (the road law) is for the time being committed by the Governor may enter into agreements about the road law with a Minister of the other jurisdiction for the purposes of this section, and to amend or revoke any such agreement.

(3) To the extent envisaged by such an agreement —

(a) police officers may, in this State or the other jurisdiction, exercise powers or perform other functions conferred respectively on authorised officers or members of the police force of the other jurisdiction under a law of the other jurisdiction corresponding to the road law; and

(b) authorised officers or members of the police force of the other jurisdiction may, in this State or the other jurisdiction, exercise powers or perform other functions conferred on police officers under the road law.

(4) Anything done or omitted to be done by a police officer as mentioned in subsection (3)(a) is to be taken to have been done under the road law as well as under the law of the other jurisdiction corresponding to the road law.

(5) Regulations may make provision for or with respect to the exercise of powers or performance of other functions under this section.

18. Effect of directions etc., administrative actions of other jurisdictions

(1) In this section —

administrative action means any action of an administrative nature that is prescribed by the regulations except the issue of a direction, notice or certificate mentioned in subsection (2); administrative authority means —

(a) a corresponding authority; or
(b) a person holding an office constituted by or under the law of another jurisdiction and prescribed by the regulations; or
(c) a body constituted by or under the law of another jurisdiction and prescribed by the regulations.

(2) The regulations are to provide for the recognition of anything under the law of another jurisdiction corresponding to —

(a) a direction under section 39, 40, 41 or 42; or
(b) a direction under Part 4 Division 6; or
(c) a direction under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 63(2) or (3), 64(2) or (5) or 65(3) or (5); or
(d) an authorisation under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 67(2); or
(e) a defect notice issued under Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 71(1); or
(f) an improvement notice, a notice of an amendment of an improvement notice, or a clearance certificate given or issued under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 6 Division 4, and, if they do, are to specify the effects of that recognition for the purposes of this Act or any other relevant road law.

(3) An administrative action of an administrative authority under or in connection with a law of another jurisdiction corresponding to a road law has effect in this State as if it were made or done under the road law.

(4) Nothing in this section gives an administrative action effect in this State or in a particular place in this State —

(a) in so far as the action is incapable of having effect in or in relation to this State or that place; or
(b) if any terms of the action expressly provide that the action does not extend or apply to or in relation to this State or that place; or
(c) if any terms of the action expressly provide that the action has effect only in the other jurisdiction or a specified place in the other jurisdiction.

[Section 18 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 214 and 232.]
19. Effect of court orders of other jurisdictions

(1) In this section —

order means an order, of a kind that is prescribed by regulations, in any judicial or other proceedings, civil or criminal, as in force from time to time.

(2) An order of a court or tribunal of another jurisdiction under or in connection with a law of the other jurisdiction corresponding to a road law has effect in this State as if it were made under the road law.

(3) Nothing in this section enables an order to have effect in this State or in a particular place in this State —

(a) in so far as the order is incapable of having effect in or in relation to this State or that place; or

(b) if any terms of the order expressly provide that the order does not extend or apply to or in relation to this State or that place; or

(c) if any terms of the order expressly provide that the order has effect only in the other jurisdiction or a specified place in the other jurisdiction.

20. Funds to which charges and fees credited

(1) The CEO, on or before the 15th day of the month next following that in which the CEO receives them, is to credit to the Consolidated Account all vehicle licence charges payable under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 7(3).

(2) All recording fees paid under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 7(1) to the CEO may be retained by the CEO.

(3) All fees taken under regulations mentioned in the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 37(h), 43(g) or 45(j) are to be credited to the Consolidated Account.

(4) An amount equal to the amounts credited to the Consolidated Account under subsections (1) and (3) is to be —

(a) credited to the Main Roads Trust Account maintained under the Main Roads Act 1930; and

(b) charged to the Consolidated Account, and this subsection appropriates the Consolidated Account accordingly.

[Section 20 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 215 and 232.]

(2) In this Part, a person is fit to drive a vehicle or to run its engine if at the relevant time —

(a) the person is apparently physically and mentally fit to drive the vehicle; and

(b) the person is not apparently impaired by alcohol or drugs; and

(c) the person’s blood alcohol content, as defined in the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 65, is not of or above a level specified under that Act or a court order in relation to the person; and

(d) a prescribed illicit drug, as defined in the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 65, is not present in the person’s oral fluid or blood.

(3) In this Part, a person is —

(a) authorised to drive a vehicle if the person is a responsible person for the vehicle or has the authority of a responsible person for the vehicle to drive it;

(b) authorised to run the engine of a vehicle if the person is a responsible person for the vehicle or has the authority of a responsible person for the vehicle to drive it or to run the engine, regardless of whether or not the person is qualified to drive the vehicle or run its engine as mentioned in subsection (1).

30. Unattended vehicle

(1) In this Part, a vehicle is unattended if —

(a) a police officer reasonably believes, after inspection and enquiry by the officer that is reasonable in the circumstances, that there is no person in, on or in the vicinity of, the vehicle who is the driver or a co-driver of the vehicle; or

(b) a police officer reasonably believes that the driver or a co-driver of the vehicle is in, on or in the vicinity of, the vehicle but that —

   (i) the person is not qualified, not fit or not authorised to drive it; or
(ii) the person is unwilling to drive it; or
(iii) the person is subject to a direction under section 42 in relation to the vehicle.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), inspection may be conducted by means of camera or other remote surveillance system.

31. Broken down vehicle

In this Part, a vehicle is broken down if it is not possible to drive the vehicle in the usual manner because it or one of its parts is disabled through damage, mechanical failure, lack of fuel or any similar reason.

Division 2A — When person taken to be instructor or in charge of vehicle

32A. Circumstances in which person taken to be instructor or in charge of motor vehicle

(1) For the purposes of this Part, unless the contrary is shown, a person is to be taken to be an instructor providing driving instruction to a learner driver if the person is —

(a) seated beside the learner driver in a motor vehicle driven by the learner driver; or

(b) if there is no seat directly beside the learner driver —

(i) seated in the seat nearest the learner driver that faces forward in a motor vehicle driven by the learner driver; or

(ii) standing near the learner driver in a motor vehicle driven by the learner driver;

(c) riding in a side car attached, or on a pillion seat fitted, to a motor cycle driven by the learner driver.

(2) Without limiting the circumstances in which a person is in charge of a motor vehicle, an instructor providing driving instruction to a learner driver is, for the purposes of this Part, to be taken to be in charge of the motor vehicle driven by the learner driver.
Division 2 — General obligations

32. Giving name, address etc.

(1) In this section —

personal details, in relation to a person, means —

(a) the person’s full name; and
(b) the person’s date of birth; and
(c) the address of where the person is living; and
(d) the address of where the person usually lives; and
(e) the person’s business address.

(2) A police officer may direct a person to give the officer then and there any or all of the person’s personal details if those personal details are unknown to the officer and the officer reasonably suspects that the person —

(a) is or may be the driver or a person in charge of a vehicle that has been or may have been involved in an incident involving death or bodily harm or damage to property; or

(b) has committed or is committing or is about to commit an offence under a road law; or

(c) is or may be an involved person; or

(d) may be able to assist in the investigation of an offence, or a suspected offence, under a road law; or

(e) may be able to give information or evidence in relation to an incident that involved a vehicle and at the scene of which the person was present.

(3) If a police officer reasonably suspects that a personal detail given by a person in response to a direction under subsection (2) is false or misleading, the officer may direct the person to produce evidence then and there of the correctness of the detail.
(4) A person to whom a direction is given under subsection (2) or (3) must not —
   (a) without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the direction; or
   (b) give any detail or produce any evidence that is false or misleading in a material particular in purported compliance with the direction.

Penalty: a fine of 50 PU.

(5) In a prosecution for an offence under subsection (4)(a), it is a defence for the person charged to prove that the officer did not warn the person that failure to comply with the direction is an offence.

(6) In a prosecution for an offence involving the failure to state a business address —
   (a) it is a reasonable excuse that the person did not have a business address; and
   (b) it is a defence for the person charged to prove that the person’s business address was not directly or indirectly connected with road transport.

33. Production of driver’s licence document, learner’s permit

(1) A police officer may direct the driver of any vehicle, or an instructor providing driving instruction to a learner driver, to produce then and there the person’s driver’s licence document or learner’s permit, as is relevant in the case.

(2) A person to whom a direction is given under subsection (1) must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the direction.

Penalty: a fine of 50 PU.

(3) In a prosecution for an offence under subsection (2) it is a defence for the person charged to prove that within a reasonable time after the direction was given, the person produced the driver’s licence document or learner’s permit to the CEO or the Commissioner of Police.

[Section 33 amended by the Road Traffic Legislation Amendment Bill (No. 2) 2015 cl. 58.]
34. Duty to identify offending driver or person in charge of vehicle

(1) In this section —

responsible person includes a person to whom the possession or control of the vehicle was entrusted at the time of the alleged offence mentioned in subsection (2)(a) or (3)(a), as the case may be.

(2) A responsible person for a vehicle commits an offence if —

(a) an offence under any written law is alleged to have occurred an element of which is driving or being in charge of the vehicle; and

(b) a police officer requests the responsible person to give information which may lead to the identification of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the time of the alleged offence; and

(c) the responsible person has, or could reasonably have ascertained, the information; and

(d) the responsible person fails to give the information.

(3) A responsible person for a vehicle commits an offence if —

(a) an offence under any written law is alleged to have occurred an element of which is driving or being in charge of the vehicle; and

(b) a police officer requests the responsible person to give information which may lead to the identification of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the time of the alleged offence; and

(c) the responsible person gives false information in response to the request.

Penalty applicable to subsections (2) and (3):

(a) for an individual —

(i) for a first offence, a fine of 24 PU;

(ii) for a subsequent offence, a fine of 48 PU;

(b) for a body corporate, a fine of 100 PU.

(4) Subsection (2) does not apply if the request for information was made in a notice under section 98.

(5) If a person is charged with an offence under subsection (2) the person may be convicted of an offence under section 35.
35. Duty to take reasonable measures to be able to comply with identity request

(1) In this section —

identity request means a request made under a road law for information as to the identity of the person who was driving or in charge of a vehicle at any particular time.

(2) A responsible person for a vehicle commits an offence if the responsible person fails to take reasonable measures, or make reasonable arrangements, to ensure that if an driver identity request is made in relation to the vehicle, the responsible person will be able to comply with it.

Penalty:

(a) for an individual —

(i) for a first offence, a fine of 24 PU;

(ii) for a subsequent offence, a fine of 48 PU;

(b) for a body corporate, a fine of 100 PU.

[Section 35 amended by the Road Traffic Legislation Amendment Bill (No. 2) 2015 cl. 59.]

36. Other offences

(1) A person must not give information that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular to a person performing a function under a road law.

Penalty: a fine of 50 PU.

(2) A person must not —

(a) while disqualified from obtaining a driver’s licence or a vehicle licence in respect of a vehicle apply for or obtain such a licence; or

(b) forge or fraudulently alter a driver’s licence document, vehicle licence, number plate or label; or

(c) use a forged or fraudulently altered driver’s licence document, vehicle licence, number plate or label, or use a driver’s licence document, vehicle licence, number plate or label to which the person is not entitled; or
(d) fraudulently permit the person’s driver’s licence document, vehicle licence, number plate or label to be used by another person; or
(e) drive a vehicle or cause or permit a vehicle to be driven on any road while it has on it —
   (i) a forged or fraudulently altered number plate or label; or
   (ii) a replica or imitation of a number plate or label; or
   (iii) a number plate or label other than one issued for that vehicle; or
(f) without lawful excuse have in the person’s possession with intent to deceive a driver’s licence document or vehicle licence or an article resembling such a document or licence, or a label or any article resembling a label; or
(g) lend or allow to be used by another person a driver’s licence document or vehicle licence or a number plate or label.

Penalty: a fine of 50 PU.

(3) In subsection (2) —

driver’s licence document includes a learner’s permit;

label means a label issued under a regulation mentioned in the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 15 or 27;

number plate has the meaning given to that term in the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 3(1).

[Section 36 amended by No. 39 of 2009 s. 11; No. 8 of 2012 s. 216 and 232.]

37. Manner of giving directions etc. under this Division

A direction or request under this Division may be given orally or in writing.
Division 3 — Directions to stop, move or leave vehicles

38. Vehicles and drivers to which this Division applies

In this Division —

co-driver, in relation to a vehicle, means a person whom the police officer concerned reasonably believes to be a co-driver of the vehicle;

driver, in relation to a vehicle, means the person whom the police officer concerned reasonably believes to be the driver of the vehicle;

vehicle means a vehicle located —

(a) on a road; or

(b) in or on a public place; or

(c) in or on premises occupied or owned by the CEO, the Commissioner of Police or other public authority but not including premises that are, or any part of premises that is, used predominantly for residential purposes; or

(d) in or on premises where the officer is lawfully present after entry under Division 5.

39. Direction to stop vehicle: to enable exercise of other powers

(1) In this section —

stop a vehicle means to stop the vehicle and keep it stationary.

(2) A police officer may, for the purpose of or in connection with exercising other powers under a road law, direct —

(a) the driver of a vehicle to stop the vehicle; or

(b) the driver of a vehicle or any other person not to do any one or more of the following —

(i) move the vehicle;

(ii) interfere with it or any equipment in or on it;

(iii) interfere with its load.

(3) A direction to stop a vehicle may require that the vehicle is to be stopped without delay, or that it be stopped at the nearest place for it to be safely stopped, as indicated by the officer.

(4) A direction to stop the vehicle, or not to move it, or not to interfere with it or any equipment in or on it or with its load, does not prevent a police officer from giving the driver or another person any later inconsistent direction.
5. A direction ceases to have effect to the extent that a police officer —
   (a) gives the driver or other person a later inconsistent direction; or
   (b) indicates to the driver or other person that the direction no longer has effect.

40. Direction to move vehicle: to enable exercise of other powers

(1) In this section —

   prescribed area means —
   (a) a place within a 30 km radius of the location of the vehicle when the direction is given; or
   (b) any point along the forward route of the journey, if the direction is given in the course of a journey of the vehicle;

   suitable location means a location that the police officer concerned reasonably believes to be a suitable location having regard to any matters the officer considers relevant in the circumstances.

(2) A police officer may, for the purpose of or in connection with exercising other powers under a road law, direct the driver or a co-driver of, or a responsible person for, a vehicle to move it or cause it to be moved to the nearest suitable location that is within the prescribed area and specified by the officer.

(3) In a prosecution for an offence under section 44 in relation to a direction given under subsection (2), it is a defence for the person charged to prove that —
   (a) at the time the direction was given the vehicle was broken down; and
   (b) the breakdown occurred for a physical reason beyond the control of the person charged; and
   (c) the breakdown could not be readily rectified, or the vehicle could not otherwise be moved, in a way that would enable the direction to be complied with within a reasonable time.
41. Direction to move vehicle: where danger or obstruction

(1) This section applies where a police officer reasonably believes that a vehicle is —
   (a) causing serious harm, or creating an imminent risk of serious harm, to public safety, the environment or road infrastructure; or
   (b) causing or likely to cause an obstruction to traffic.

(2) The officer may direct the driver or a co-driver of, or a responsible person for, the vehicle, to do any of the following —
   (a) move the vehicle, or cause it to be moved, to the extent necessary to avoid or minimise the harm or obstruction;
   (b) do anything else reasonably required by the officer, or cause anything else reasonably required by the officer to be done, to avoid or minimise the harm or obstruction.

(3) In a prosecution for an offence under section 44 in relation to a direction given under subsection (2)(a), it is a defence for the person charged to prove that —
   (a) at the time the direction was given the vehicle was broken down; and
   (b) the breakdown occurred for a physical reason beyond the control of the person charged; and
   (c) the breakdown could not be readily rectified, or the vehicle could not otherwise be moved, in a way that would enable the direction to be complied with within a reasonable time.

42. Direction to leave vehicle

(1) This section applies where —
   (a) the driver or a co-driver of a vehicle fails to comply with a direction given by a police officer under section 39, 40 or 41; or
   (b) a police officer reasonably believes that the driver or co-driver of a vehicle is not qualified, is not fit or is not authorised to drive the vehicle in order to comply with such a direction.

(2) The officer may direct the driver or co-driver —
   (a) to vacate the driver’s seat; or
   (b) to leave the vehicle; or
(c) not to occupy the driver’s seat until permitted to do so by a police officer; or
(d) not to enter the vehicle until permitted to do so by a police officer.

(3) The officer may direct any other person —
(a) to leave the vehicle; or
(b) not to enter the vehicle until permitted to do so by a police officer.

43. Manner of giving directions under this Division

(1) A direction under section 39, 40, 41 or 42 may be given to the driver, a co-driver or other person orally or by means of a sign or signal (electronic or otherwise), or in any other manner.

(2) A direction under section 39, 40, 41 or 42 may be given to a responsible person for a vehicle orally or by telephone, facsimile, electronic mail or radio, or in any other manner.

44. Directions to be complied with

A person to whom a direction is given under section 39, 40, 41 or 42 must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the direction.

Penalty:
(a) unless paragraph (b) applies — a fine of 100 PU;
(b) if the person was given the direction under section 39 and the person was, at the time the direction was given, driving the vehicle so as to escape pursuit by a police officer — imprisonment for 2 years, but the minimum penalty is a fine of 100 PU; and, in any event, the court convicting the person must order that the offender is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver’s licence for a period of not less than 2 years.

[Section 44 amended by No. 59 of 2012 s. 14.]

Division 4 — Power to move vehicles

45. Moving unattended vehicle to exercise Division 5 powers

(1) This section applies where a police officer —
(a) reasonably believes that a vehicle on a road is unattended; and
(b) is seeking to exercise powers under Division 5; and
(c) reasonably believes that the vehicle should be moved to enable or to facilitate the exercise of those powers.

(2) The officer may move the vehicle, or authorise another person to move the vehicle, by driving or towing it or otherwise, to the extent reasonably necessary to exercise the powers concerned.

(3) The officer may enter the vehicle, or authorise another person to enter it, for the purpose of moving the vehicle.

(4) The officer or person authorised by the officer may use reasonable force to do any or all of the following —
   (a) open unlocked doors and other unlocked panels and objects;
   (b) gain access to the vehicle, or its engine or other mechanical parts, to enable the vehicle to be moved;
   (c) enable the vehicle to be towed.

(5) The officer or person authorised by the officer may drive the vehicle only if qualified and fit to drive it.

46. Moving unattended or broken down vehicle where danger or obstruction

(1) This section applies where a police officer reasonably believes that —
   (a) a vehicle on a road is unattended or broken down; and
   (b) the vehicle —
      (i) is causing serious harm, or creating an imminent risk of serious harm, to public safety, the environment or road infrastructure; or
      (ii) is causing or likely to cause an obstruction to traffic.

(2) The officer may move the vehicle, or authorise another person to move the vehicle, by driving or towing it or otherwise, to the extent reasonably necessary to prevent or minimise the harm or risk or prevent or remove the obstruction.

(3) The officer may —
   (a) enter a vehicle, or authorise another person to enter it, for the purpose of moving the vehicle; or
   (b) separate a vehicle from another vehicle, or authorise another person to do so, for the purpose of moving a vehicle.
(4) The officer may drive a vehicle even though the officer is not qualified to drive it, if the officer reasonably believes that there is no other person in, on or in the vicinity of the vehicle who is more capable of driving it than the officer and who is fit and willing to drive it.

(5) A person authorised by the officer may drive a vehicle even though the person is not qualified to drive it, if the officer reasonably believes that there is no one else in, on or in the vicinity of the vehicle who is more capable of driving it than that person and who is fit and willing to drive it.

(6) The officer or person driving a vehicle under the authority of this section is exempt from any other road law to the extent that the other law would require him or her to be licensed or otherwise authorised to drive the vehicle.

(7) The officer or person authorised by the officer may use reasonable force to the extent reasonably necessary to prevent or minimise the harm or risk or prevent or remove the obstruction.

47. Moving vehicles parked without authority in certain areas

(1) In this section —

authorised person, in relation to land, means any of the following —

(a) a police officer;

(b) the owner or person in possession of the land;

(c) an employee of the owner or person in possession of the land;

prescribed area means any area defined for the purposes of this section by the Governor by order published in the Gazette.

(2) A person must not, within a prescribed area, park a vehicle on land which is not a road, unless the person is authorised to do so by the owner or person in possession of the land.

Penalty: a fine of 5 PU.

(3) An authorised person may direct the driver or person in charge of a vehicle parked contrary to subsection (2) to remove the vehicle from the place where it is parked if the vehicle is causing or is likely to cause an obstruction or danger to traffic.
(4) A person to whom a direction is given under subsection (3) must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the direction.

Penalty: a fine of 3 PU.

(5) If no person appears to be in immediate charge of a vehicle mentioned in subsection (2), an authorised person may remove the vehicle from the place where it is parked and if the person does so the person must move the vehicle either to a place where the parking of vehicles is permitted or to the police station nearest to the land.

(6) An authorised person who under subsection (5) removes and parks a vehicle, must forthwith give particulars to a police officer at the police station nearest to the place where the authorised person has parked the vehicle, of his or her name and address, the registered number of the vehicle, the place where he or she parked the vehicle, and the time that the vehicle was removed.

(7) A person who incurs costs in removing a vehicle under subsection (5) may recover the costs in a court of competent jurisdiction from the person who parked the vehicle as mentioned in subsection (2).

48. Moving vehicles involved in offence

A police officer may drive or convey a vehicle to any police station or other place for safe custody if the officer —

(a) reasonably believes that the vehicle has been used in connection with an offence under any written law; or

(b) has charged a person with an offence an element of which is the use or driving of the vehicle.

49. Removal of other unattended vehicles

(1) A police officer may remove an unattended vehicle or cause it to be removed, from a road to a police station, or any other place where it may conveniently be detained, if —

(a) the officer reasonably believes it is an unlicensed vehicle, or is fitted with an identification tablet or plate that was not issued for the vehicle by the CEO or a corresponding authority; or

(b) it is not fitted with an identification tablet or plate; or

(c) it is apparently abandoned; or

Part 4  Enforcement of road laws
Division 5  Powers of inspection and search for MDLR compliance purposes

s. 50

(d) the officer reasonably believes it has been involved in an incident on a road.

(2) A person who incurs costs in removing a vehicle under subsection (1) may recover the costs from an owner of the vehicle in a court of competent jurisdiction.

50. Authorisation of responsible person not required

A person may, under section 45, 46, 47, 48 or 49, drive a vehicle whether or not the person is authorised to do so by a responsible person for the vehicle.

Division 5 — Powers of inspection and search for MDLR compliance purposes

51. Residential purposes

(1) In this Division —

(a) premises are not to be taken to be used for residential purposes; and

(b) any part of premises is not to be taken to be used for residential purposes, merely because temporary or casual sleeping facilities are provided there for drivers.

(2) If a vehicle is kept, or a business is carried on, at premises used predominantly for residential purposes, the place where the vehicle is kept or from which the business is carried on is, for the purposes of sections 54(7) and 55(7), to be taken to be used predominantly for residential purposes.

52. Inspection of vehicles on roads, in public places or certain official premises

(1) In this section —

vehicle means a vehicle (whether attended or unattended) located —

(a) on a road; or

(b) in or on a public place; or

(c) in or on premises occupied or owned by the CEO, the Commissioner of Police or other public authority but not including premises that are, or any part of premises that is, used predominantly for residential purposes; or
(d) at an inspection station.

(2) A police officer may inspect a vehicle —
(a) for MDLR compliance purposes; or
(b) for any defect as defined in the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 70.

(3) A police officer may enter a vehicle for the purpose of or in connection with conducting an inspection under this section.

(4) A police officer may exercise powers under this section at any time, and without the consent of the driver or other person apparently in charge of a vehicle or any other person.

(5) The power to inspect a vehicle under this section includes —
(a) the power to examine, weigh, test (including test drive), measure or take photographs of the vehicle or any part of it, its equipment or load; and
(b) the power to check the existence or details of, or take photographs of, placards or other information required under a road law to be displayed in or on the vehicle; and
(c) the power to inspect and take copies of or extracts from any records that are located in or on the vehicle and that are required to be carried in or on the vehicle under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 4 (including any regulation made, or requirement imposed, under or for the purposes of that Part); and
(d) the power to access or download information that is required to be kept under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 4 (including any regulation made, or requirement imposed, under or for the purposes of that Part) and that is —
(i) stored electronically in equipment located in or on the vehicle; or
(ii) accessible electronically from equipment located in or on the vehicle.

(6) This section does not authorise the use of force, but a police officer may, in the exercise of powers under this section —
(a) open unlocked doors and other unlocked panels and objects; and
(b) inspect anything that has been opened or otherwise accessed under the power to use reasonable force in the exercise of a power to enter or move a vehicle under Division 4; and

(c) move but not take away anything that is not locked up or sealed.

[Section 52 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 217 and 232.]

53. Search of vehicles on roads, in public places or certain official premises

(1) In this section —

vehicle has the meaning given to that term in section 52(1).

(2) A police officer may search a vehicle for MDLR compliance purposes.

(3) A police officer may enter a vehicle for the purpose of or in connection with conducting a search under this section.

(4) A police officer may exercise powers under this section at any time, and without the need to obtain the consent of any person.

(5) The power to search a vehicle under this section includes —

(a) the power to search for and inspect any records, devices or other things that relate to the vehicle or any part of its equipment or load and that are located in or on the vehicle; and

(b) the power to take copies of or extracts from any or all of the following —

(i) any transport documentation or journey documentation located in or on the vehicle;

(ii) any other records, or any readout or other data obtained from any device or thing, located in or on the vehicle that the officer reasonably believes provide, or may on further inspection provide, evidence of an MDLR offence;

and

(c) any power that may be exercised during an inspection of a vehicle under section 52(5).

(6) The power to search a vehicle under this section does not include a power to search a person.
(7) During the search of a vehicle under this section a police officer may seize and remove any records, devices or other things from the vehicle that the officer reasonably believes provide, or may on further inspection provide, evidence of an MDLR offence.

(8) A police officer may use reasonable force in the exercise of powers under this section.

54. Inspection of premises

(1) In this section —

premises means —

(a) premises at or from which an involved person carries on business relating to road transport; or

(b) premises that are occupied by an involved person in connection with a business relating to road transport; or

(c) premises that are a registered office of an involved person in connection with a business relating to road transport; or

(d) a base, as defined in the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 3(1), of the driver of a vehicle; or

(e) premises where records required to be kept under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 4 (including any regulation made, or requirement imposed, under or for the purposes of that Part) are located or where any such records are required to be located.

(2) A police officer may inspect premises for MDLR compliance purposes.

(3) A police officer may enter premises for the purpose of conducting an inspection under this section.

(4) Without limiting the above, a police officer may inspect, or enter and inspect, any vehicle at premises being inspected under this section.

(5) An inspection under this section may be made —

(a) at any time with the consent of the occupier of the premises; or

(b) if a business is carried on at the premises — at any time during the usual business operating hours applicable at the premises (whether or not the premises are actually
(6) A police officer must not exercise the power to enter and inspect premises mentioned in subsection (5)(b) without the consent of the occupier unless the police officer reasonably believes that the premises are attended.

(7) A police officer must not exercise the power to enter and inspect premises mentioned in subsection (5)(b) without the consent of the occupier if the premises are, or any part of premises is, used predominantly for residential purposes.

(8) The power to inspect premises under this section includes —

(a) the power to inspect and take copies of or extracts from any records located at the premises and required to be kept under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 4 (including any regulation made, or requirement imposed, under or for the purposes of that Part); and

(b) the power to check the existence of and inspect any devices (including weighing, measuring, recording or monitoring devices) required to be installed, used or maintained under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 4 (including any regulation made, or requirement imposed, under or for the purposes of that Part) and to inspect and take copies of or extracts from any readout or other data obtained from any such device; and

(d) the power to use photocopying equipment on the premises free of charge for the purpose of copying any records or other material.

(9) This section does not authorise the use of force, but a police officer may, in the exercise of powers under this section —

(a) open unlocked doors and other unlocked panels and objects; and

(b) inspect anything that has been opened or otherwise accessed under the power to use reasonable force in the exercise of a power to enter or move a vehicle under Division 4; and
(c) move but not take away anything that is not locked up or sealed.

[Section 54 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 232.]

55. Search of premises

(1) In this section —

premises has the meaning given to that term in section 54(1) and includes premises where the officer concerned reasonably believes that —

(a) a vehicle used or to be used in connection with road transport is or has been located; or

(b) transport documentation or journey documentation is located.

(2) A police officer may search premises for MDLR compliance purposes.

(3) A police officer may enter premises for the purpose of conducting a search under this section.

(4) A police officer may, for MDLR compliance purposes, search, or enter and search, any vehicle at premises being searched under this section.

(5) A search of premises under this section may be conducted —

(a) at any time if a warrant to enter the premises has been issued under section 65; or

(b) at any time with the consent of the occupier of the premises; or

(c) if a business is carried on at the premises — at any time during the usual business operating hours applicable at the premises (whether or not the premises are actually being used for that purpose), and without a warrant and without the consent of the occupier of the premises or any other person.

(6) A police officer must not exercise the power to search premises mentioned in subsection (5)(c) without a warrant or the consent of the occupier unless the police officer reasonably believes that the premises are attended.

(7) A police officer must not exercise the power to search premises mentioned in subsection (5)(c) without a warrant or the consent of the occupier if the premises are, or any part of premises is, used predominantly for residential purposes.

[This compilation shows amendments proposed by Bill No. 151-1B Pt. 2 Div. 2, Pt. 3 Div. 3 Subdiv. 2 and Div. 4 Subdiv. 2.]
(8) The power to search premises under this section includes —

(a) the power to search for and inspect any records, devices or other things that relate to a vehicle or any part of its equipment or load and that are located at the premises; and

(b) the power to take copies of or extracts from any of the following —

(i) any transport documentation or journey documentation located at the premises;

(ii) any other records, or any readout or other data obtained from any device or thing, located at the premises that the officer reasonably believes provide, or may on further inspection provide, evidence of an MDLR offence;

and

(c) the power to use photocopying equipment on the premises free of charge for the purpose of copying any records or other material; and

(d) the power to exercise with respect to a vehicle located at the premises any powers that may be exercised during a search of a vehicle under section 53(5); and

(e) any powers that may be exercised during an inspection of premises under section 54(8).

(9) The power to search premises under this section does not include a power to search a person.

(10) During a search of premises under this section a police officer may seize and remove any records, devices or other things from the premises that the officer reasonably believes provide, or may on further inspection provide, evidence of an MDLR offence.

(11) A police officer may use reasonable force in the exercise of powers under this section.

Division 6 — Other directions in relation to MDLR compliance purposes

56. Direction to produce records, devices or other things

(1) A police officer may, for MDLR compliance purposes, direct an involved person to produce any of the following —

(a) a record required to be kept under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 4 (including any regulation made, or requirement imposed, under or for the purposes of that Part);

(b) a record comprising transport documentation or journey documentation in the involved person’s possession or under that person’s control;

(c) a record, device or other thing that contains or may contain a record, in the person’s possession or under the person’s control relating to or indicating —

(i) the use, performance or condition of a vehicle; or

(ii) the ownership, insurance or licensing status of a vehicle; or

(iii) the load or equipment carried or intended to be carried by a vehicle (including the insurance status of any such load or equipment).

(2) A direction under subsection (1) must —

(a) specify —

(i) the record, device or other thing to be produced;

or

(ii) the classes of record, device or other thing to be produced;

and

(b) state where and to whom the record, device or other thing is to be produced.

(3) A police officer may do any or all of the following —

(a) inspect a record, device or other thing that is produced;

(b) make copies of, or take extracts from, a record, device or other thing that is produced;

(c) seize and remove a record, device or other thing that is produced that the officer reasonably believes may on further inspection provide evidence of an MDLR offence.

(4) A person to whom a direction is given under subsection (1) must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the direction.

Penalty: a fine of 50 PU.

(5) In subsection (4) —

reasonable excuse does not include the excuse that the production of a record, device or other thing that contains or may contain a record might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.

(6) Despite subsection (5), a record, device or other thing produced by a person in compliance with a direction under subsection (1) is not admissible in evidence in any proceedings against the person.

[Section 56 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 232.]

57. Direction to provide information

(1) A police officer may, for MDLR compliance purposes, direct an involved person who is associated with a particular vehicle to provide information to the officer about the vehicle or any load or equipment carried or intended to be carried by the vehicle.

(2) Without limiting the above, a direction under subsection (1) may require the involved person to do any or all of the following —

(a) state the name and home address and, in the case of an individual, the business address of any of the following —
   (i) other involved persons of specified classes who are associated with the vehicle;
   (ii) a responsible person for the vehicle;

(b) provide information about the current or intended trip of the vehicle, including any of the following —
   (i) the location of the start or intended start of the trip;
   (ii) the route or intended route of the trip;
   (iii) the location of the destination or intended destination of the trip.

(3) A person to whom a direction is given under subsection (1) must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the direction.

Penalty: a fine of 50 PU.

(4) A person to whom a direction is given under subsection (1) must not provide information that is false or misleading in a material particular in purported compliance with the direction.

Penalty: a fine of 100 PU.
In subsection (3) —

reasonable excuse includes —

(a) that the person did not know and could not have been reasonably expected to know or ascertain the required information; and

(b) in relation to a failure to state another person’s business address —

(i) that the other person did not have a business address; or

(ii) that the business conducted by the other person at that address was not directly or indirectly connected with road transport, but does not include the excuse that the required information might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.

Despite subsection (5), information provided by a person in compliance with a direction under subsection (1) is not admissible in evidence in any proceedings against the person other than a prosecution for an offence under subsection (4).

58. Direction to provide reasonable assistance for powers of inspection and search

A police officer may direct an involved person to provide assistance to the officer to enable the officer to effectively exercise a power under section 52(2)(a), 53, 54 or 55.

Without limiting the above, the assistance may include helping the officer to do any or all of the following —

(a) find and gain access to any records or information relating to a vehicle, including any of the following —

(i) records and information required to be carried in or on the vehicle under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 4 (including any regulation made, or requirement imposed, under or for the purposes of that Part);

(ii) records and information in a useable form for the purpose of ascertaining the vehicle’s compliance with requirements imposed under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 4 (including any regulation made, or requirement imposed, under or for the purposes of that Part);

(b) find and gain access to electronically stored information;
Road Traffic (Administration) Act 2008
Part 4 Enforcement of road laws
Division 6 Other directions in relation to MDLR compliance purposes
s. 58

(c) weigh or measure any of the following —
   (i) the whole or any part of a vehicle, including an axle or axle group;
   (ii) the whole or any part of a vehicle’s equipment or load;

(d) operate equipment or facilities for a purpose relevant to the power being or proposed to be exercised;

(e) provide access free of charge to photocopying equipment for the purpose of copying any records or other material.

(3) This section authorises the giving of a direction to run the engine of a vehicle, but not otherwise to drive the vehicle.

(4) A direction under subsection (1) —
   (a) can be given in relation to a power under section 52(2)(a), 53, 54 or 55 only while the power can lawfully be exercised; and
   (b) ceases to have effect when that power is no longer exercisable.

(5) A person to whom a direction given under subsection (1) must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the direction.
   Penalty: a fine of 50 PU.

(6) In subsection (5) —
   reasonable excuse includes —
   (a) that the direction was unreasonable; or
   (b) that the direction or its subject matter was outside the scope of the business or other activities of the person, but does not include the excuse that the assistance may result in information being provided that might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.

(7) Despite subsection (6), information that resulted from the assistance provided by a person in compliance with a direction under subsection (1) is not admissible in evidence in any proceedings against the person.
(8) If a person to whom a direction to run the engine of a vehicle is given under this section fails to comply with the direction or no involved person is available or willing to do so, a police officer may —

(a) enter the vehicle and run its engine; or

(b) authorise any other person to enter the vehicle and run its engine.

[Section 58 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 232.]

59. Provisions relating to running engine

(1) In this section —

authorised person means a person —

(a) to whom a direction is given under section 58(1) to run the engine of a vehicle; or

(b) authorised under section 58(8)(a) or (b) to run the engine of a vehicle.

(2) An authorised person may run the engine of a vehicle even though the person is not qualified to drive the vehicle, if a police officer reasonably believes that there is no other person in, on or in the vicinity of the vehicle who is more capable of running the engine than the authorised person and who is fit and willing to run the engine.

(3) An authorised person may use reasonable force to comply with a direction to run the engine of a vehicle or when acting under the authority of section 58(8)(a) or (b) to enter a vehicle and run its engine.

(4) An authorised person may run the engine of a vehicle even though the person —

(a) is not a responsible person for the vehicle; or

(b) does not have the authority of a responsible person for the vehicle to run the engine.

(5) The authorised person, in complying with the direction given under section 58(1) to run the engine of a vehicle or when acting under the authority of section 58(8)(a) or (b) to run the engine of a vehicle, is exempt from any other road law to the extent that the other law would require the authorised person to be licensed or otherwise authorised to do so.
60. Manner of giving directions under this Division

   (1) A direction under this Division may be given orally, in writing or in any other manner.

   (2) A direction not given in person may be sent or transmitted by post, telephone, facsimile, electronic mail, radio or in any other manner.

61. Directions to state when to be complied with

   (1) A direction under this Division that is given orally must state whether it is to be complied with then and there or within a specified period.

   (2) A direction under this Division that is given in writing must state the period within which it is to be complied with.

Division 7 — Warrants to enter premises for MDLR compliance purposes

62. Terms used

In this Division —

- remote communication means any way of communicating at a distance including by telephone, fax, email and radio;
- warrant means a warrant authorising entry to premises.

63. Warrant, grounds for application

   (1) A police officer may apply for a warrant.

   (2) An application for a warrant must be made to a JP in accordance with section 64.

   (3) An application for a warrant must —

      (a) state the applicant’s full name, rank and number assigned to the applicant for official purposes; and

      (b) describe the premises that it is desired to search; and

      (c) state the MDLR compliance purposes in respect of which it is desired to search the premises; and

      (d) in the case where it is desired to investigate a breach or suspected breach of a provision mentioned in paragraph (a) of the definition of MDLR compliance purposes in section 28, state —

         (i) the provision; and
(ii) that the applicant reasonably believes there has been such a breach; and

(iii) the grounds on which the applicant holds that belief;

and

(e) state whether the premises are, or any part of premises is, used predominantly for residential purposes; and

(f) state the grounds on which the applicant believes that the premises are unattended or will be unattended at the time of the proposed entry; and

(g) state, to the best of the applicant’s knowledge, whether an application for a warrant for the same premises has been made to any other JP within the previous 72 hours and if so whether a warrant was issued or not; and

(h) include any other information that is prescribed.

64. Warrant, manner of application

(1) A reference in this section to making an application includes a reference to giving information in support of the application.

(2) This section applies to and in respect of an application to a JP for a warrant.

(3) The application must be made in person before the JP unless —

(a) the warrant or order is needed urgently; and

(b) the applicant reasonably believes that a JP is not available within a reasonable distance of the applicant, in which case —

(c) it may be made to a JP by remote communication; and

(d) the JP must not grant it unless satisfied about the matters in paragraphs (a) and (b).

(4) The application must be made in writing unless —

(a) the application is made by remote communication; and

(b) it is not practicable to send the JP written material, in which case —

(c) it may be made orally; and

(d) the JP must make a written record of the application and any information given in support of it.

(5) The application must be made on oath unless —
Road Traffic (Administration) Act 2008
Part 4 Enforcement of road laws
Division 7 Warrants to enter premises for MDLR compliance purposes
s. 65

(a) the application is made by remote communication; and
(b) it is not practicable for the JP to administer an oath to the applicant,

in which case —
(c) it may be made in an unsworn form; and
(d) if the JP issues a warrant, the applicant must as soon as practicable send the JP an affidavit verifying the application and any information given in support of it.

(6) If on an application made by remote communication a JP issues a warrant the JP must, if practicable, send a copy of the original warrant to the applicant by remote communication, but otherwise —
(a) the JP must give the applicant by remote communication any information that must be set out in the warrant; and (b) the applicant must complete a form of a warrant with the information received and give the JP a copy of the form as soon as practicable after doing so; and
(c) the JP must attach the copy of the form to the original warrant and any affidavit received from the applicant and make them available for collection by the applicant.

(7) The copy of the original warrant sent, or the form of the warrant completed, as the case may be, under subsection (6) has the same force and effect as the original warrant.

65. Warrant, issue of

(1) On an application made under section 63, a JP may issue a warrant if satisfied that, in respect of each of the matters in section 63(3) that the applicant believes, there are reasonable grounds for the applicant to have that belief.

(2) A warrant must specify —
(a) the applicant’s full name, rank and number assigned to the applicant for official purposes; and
(b) each suspected offence (if any) to which it relates; and
(c) the premises that may be entered under the warrant; and
(d) the period, not exceeding 30 days, during which it may be executed; and
(e) the name of the JP who issued it; and
(f) the date and time when it was issued.
Division 8 — Other provisions regarding inspections and searches for MDLR compliance purposes

66. Warrant, duration and execution of

(1) A warrant comes into force when it is issued by a JP.

(2) A warrant can only be executed during the period specified in the warrant under section 65(2)(d).

(3) A warrant may be executed by any police officer.

(4) A warrant must be executed between 6 a.m. and 9 p.m. unless the officer executing it reasonably suspects that if it were, the safety of any person, including the officer, may be endangered or the effectiveness of the proposed search may be jeopardised.

(5) On completing the execution of a warrant the officer in charge of executing it must record the following matters on it —

   (a) the officer’s full name, rank and number assigned to the officer for official purposes;

   (b) the date and time when the warrant was executed;

   (c) any other matter that is prescribed.

67. Use of assistants and equipment

(1) A police officer may exercise powers under Division 5 with the aid of such assistants and equipment as the officer considers reasonably necessary in the circumstances.

(2) Powers that may be exercised by a police officer under Division 5 may be exercised by an assistant authorised and supervised by the officer, but only if the officer —

   (a) considers that it is reasonably necessary in the circumstances that the powers are exercised by an assistant; and

   (b) authorises the assistant accordingly.

(3) Subsection (2) does not authorise an assistant to use force against a person.
68. Use of equipment to examine or process things

(1) Without limiting section 67, a police officer exercising a power under Division 5 may bring to, or on to, a vehicle or premises any equipment reasonably necessary for the examination or processing of a thing found in, on or at the vehicle or premises in order to determine whether it is a thing that may be seized.

(2) A thing may be moved to another place so that the examination or processing can be carried out in order to determine whether it is a thing that may be seized if —

   (a) it is not practicable to examine or process the thing in or at the vehicle or premises; or

   (b) the occupier of the vehicle or premises consents in writing.

(3) A police officer, or a person assisting a police officer, may operate equipment already in, on or at the vehicle or premises to carry out the examination or processing of a thing found in, on or at the vehicle or premises in order to determine whether it is a thing that may be seized, if the officer or person assisting reasonably believes that —

   (a) the equipment is suitable for the examination or the processing; and

   (b) the examination or processing can be carried out without damage to the equipment or the thing.

69. Use or seizure of electronic equipment

(1) A police officer or a person assisting a police officer may operate equipment to access information if —

   (a) the information is stored in a thing found in, on or at a vehicle or premises including a disk, tape or other device for the storage of information; and

   (b) the equipment is in, on or at the vehicle or premises and can be used with the disk, tape or other storage device; and

   (c) the police officer reasonably believes that the information may provide evidence of an MDLR offence.
(2) If a police officer or a person assisting a police officer finds that a disk, tape or other storage device in, on or at the vehicle or premises contains information of a kind mentioned in subsection (1)(c), he or she may —

(a) put the information in documentary form and seize the documents so produced; or

(b) copy the information to another disk, tape or other storage device and remove that storage device from the vehicle or premises; or

(c) if it is not practicable to put the information in documentary form or to copy the information, seize the disk, tape or other storage device and the equipment that enables the information to be accessed.

(3) A police officer or a person assisting a police officer must not operate or seize equipment for the purpose mentioned in this section unless the officer or person assisting reasonably believes that the operation or seizure of the equipment can be carried out without damage to the equipment.

Division 9 — Other provisions regarding seizure for MDLR compliance purposes

70. Seized material: receipts, copies, access to originals

(1) In this section —

entitled person, in relation to a seized record, means a person who —

(a) appears entitled to possession of the record; and

(b) does not already have a copy of the record.

(2) A police officer who seizes and removes a record, device or other thing under Division 5 must give a receipt for it to the person from whom it is seized and removed.

(3) A police officer must give a copy of a seized record to an entitled person, on the request of the entitled person to do so, as soon as possible after the request is received but in any event not later than the period ending 6 months after the day on which the request is received.

(4) A police officer must return a seized record to an entitled person, on the request of the entitled person to do so, unless the officer reasonably suspects that doing so will jeopardise the evidentiary value of the record.

(5) A police officer must allow an entitled person to inspect a seized record and make and keep a copy of it, on the request of the entitled person to do so, unless the officer reasonably suspects that doing so will jeopardise the evidentiary value of the record.

(6) Unless a police officer reasonably suspects that complying with a request mentioned in subsection (4) or (5) will jeopardise the evidentiary value of a seized record, the officer must comply with the request as soon as possible after the request is received but in any event not later than the period ending 6 months after the day on which the request is received.

[Section 70 inserted by No. 8 of 2012 s. 218.]

71. Embargo notices

(1) A police officer may issue an embargo notice if —
(a) the officer is authorised to seize any record, device or other thing under Division 5; and
(b) the record, device or other thing cannot, or cannot readily, be physically seized and removed.

(2) An embargo notice may prohibit a person from such of the following activities as are listed in the notice unless the person has the written consent of the officer, the CEO or the Commissioner of Police —
(a) the movement, sale, leasing, transfer, or other dealing with the record, device or other thing, or any part of it;
(b) the deletion of information from the record, device or other thing, or any part of it.

(3) An embargo notice must —
(a) be in a prescribed form or contain prescribed particulars; and
(b) list the activities that are prohibited by the notice; and
(c) set out the terms of subsections (5) and (7).

(4) An embargo notice is to be issued —
(a) by causing a copy of the notice to be served on the occupier of the premises, or a person who is a responsible person for the vehicle, as is relevant to the case; or
(b) if that person cannot be located after all reasonable steps have been taken to do so, by affixing a copy of the notice to the record, device or other thing in a prominent position.

(5) A person commits an offence if the person knows that an embargo notice relates to a record, device or other thing and the person —
   (a) does anything that is prohibited by the notice; or
   (b) instructs another person to do anything that is prohibited by the notice; or
   (c) instructs another person to do anything that the notice prohibits the first-mentioned person from doing.

Penalty: a fine of 100 PU.

(6) In a prosecution for an offence under subsection (5) it is a defence for the person charged to prove that he or she —
   (a) moved the record, device or other thing, or part of it, for the purpose of protecting or preserving it; or
   (b) notified the person who issued the embargo notice of the move, and of the new location of the record, device or other thing or part of it, within 48 hours after the move.

(7) A person commits an offence if —
   (a) an embargo notice has been served on the person; and
   (b) the person fails to take reasonable steps to prevent any other person from doing anything forbidden by the notice.

Penalty: a fine of 100 PU.

(8) Despite any other written law, the sale, lease or transfer or other dealing with a record, device or other thing, or part of it, that is the subject of an embargo notice in contravention of the notice has no effect.

Division 10 — Miscellaneous

72. Power to use force against persons to be exercised only by police officers

A provision of this Part that authorises a person to use reasonable force does not authorise a warden or other person who is not a police officer to use force against a person.
73. Consent

(1) A police officer must, before obtaining the consent of a person for the purposes of a provision of this Part, inform the person that he or she may refuse to give consent.

(2) An entry by or the exercise of any other power under this Part by a police officer on the basis that the officer has a person’s consent is not lawful unless the person voluntarily consented to the entry or exercise of the power.

(3) Consent to the exercise of a power may be withdrawn after it has been given, and if it is withdrawn, the power cannot be exercised on the basis that there is consent to do so.

74. Occupier’s rights

(1) This section applies to and in respect of the entry of premises where the entry is to be made under this Part.

(2) If the occupier of premises is present when it is proposed to enter the premises, a police officer must, before any police officer enters the premises —
   (a) identify himself or herself to the occupier; and
   (b) inform the occupier that it is intended to enter the premises; and
   (c) if the premises are to be entered under a warrant issued under section 65, give the occupier a copy of the warrant; and
   (d) if the premises are to be entered under section 54(5) or 55(5)(b) or (c), inform the occupier of the relevant provision and the reason for the entry; and
   (e) give the occupier an opportunity to consent to the premises being entered, unless the police officer reasonably suspects that to do so will endanger any person, including the officer, or jeopardise the purpose of the proposed entry or the effectiveness of any search of the place.

(3) If subsection (2) is not complied with before premises are entered, then as soon as practicable after the place is entered a police officer must —
   (a) identify himself or herself to the occupier; and
   (b) if the entry was under warrant issued under section 65, give the occupier a copy of the warrant; and
(c) if the entry was under section 54(5) or 55(5)(b) or (c), inform the occupier of the relevant provision and the reason for the entry.

(4) If the occupier of premises is present in the premises during a search, a police officer doing the search must not prevent the occupier, or a person nominated by the occupier, from observing the search, unless —

(a) the officer reasonably suspects that the occupier or person might be endangered if he or she were to observe the search; or

(b) the occupier or person obstructs the search; or

(c) it is impracticable for the occupier or person to observe the search.

(5) If premises that are entered by one or more police officers are unoccupied, the officer in charge must leave the following in a prominent position in the premises before leaving the premises —

(a) a notice stating —

(i) the officer’s official details; and

(ii) that the premises have been entered; and

(b) if the entry was under warrant issued under section 65, a copy of the warrant completed in accordance with section 66(5); and

(c) if the entry was under section 54(5) or 55(5)(b) or (c), inform the occupier of the relevant provision and the reason for the entry.

(6) The copy of a warrant given under subsection (2)(c) or (3)(b) or left under subsection (5)(b) must omit the name of the judicial officer who issued it.

75. Directions may be given under more than one provision

(1) A police officer may, on the same occasion, give directions under one or more provisions of this Part.

(2) Without limiting the above, a police officer may, in the course of exercising a power under a provision of this Part, give any of the following —

(a) a further direction under the provision;
76. Defence of compliance with direction

In a prosecution for an offence under a road law, it is a defence for the person charged to prove that the conduct constituting the offence was done in compliance with a direction given by —

(a) a police officer; or

(b) the CEO or a delegate of the CEO.

77. Restoring vehicle or premises to original condition after action taken

A police officer must take reasonable steps to return a vehicle or its equipment or load, or premises to the condition they were in immediately before action was taken in the exercise or purported exercise of any power under this Part in relation to the vehicle, equipment, load or premises if —

(a) the action was taken by the officer or a person authorised by the officer; and

(b) damage was caused by the unreasonable exercise of the power or by the use of force that was not authorised under this Part.

78. Providing evidence to other authorities

Any record, device or other thing seized, or any information obtained, under Division 5 or 6 may, for the purposes of law enforcement, be given to an Australian police officer or any public authority of any jurisdiction (including any corresponding authority) considered appropriate by the CEO or the Commissioner of Police, but only after consultation with the police force or public authority concerned.
Part 5 — Infringement notices

Division 1 — Infringement notices generally

79. Infringement notices

A police officer who reasonably believes that a person has committed an offence under a road law that is prescribed for the purposes of this section may serve on that person a notice, in a prescribed form, (an infringement notice) informing the person that, if the person does not wish to be prosecuted for the alleged offence in a court, the person may pay to an officer specified in the notice, within the time specified in the notice, the amount of the penalty prescribed for the offence, if dealt with under this Division.

80. Service of infringement notices

An infringement notice may be served on an alleged offender personally or by posting it to his or her address as ascertained from him or her, at the time of, or immediately following, the occurrence giving rise to the allegation of an offence, or as ascertained in an inquiry made under section 34.

81. Infringement notices for not applying for transfer of vehicle licence

(1) In this section —

offence means an offence under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 10(6).

(2) If the offence is prescribed for the purposes of section 79 an infringement notice issued for an alleged offence, in addition to specifying the prescribed penalty for the offence, may specify —

(a) the prescribed transfer fee; and

(b) the amount payable under a taxation Act, as defined in the Taxation Administration Act 2003 Glossary, in respect of the transfer of the licence, and, for the purposes of sections 79, 82, 83(2) and 84(1), (2) and (3) and the Fines, Penalties and Infringement Notices Enforcement Act 1994, the prescribed penalty is to be taken to be the sum of the prescribed penalty and those 2 other amounts.

(3) An infringement notice issued for an alleged offence may be served on the alleged offender personally or by posting it to the alleged offender’s address as ascertained from a person mentioned in the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 10(1) or otherwise.

[Section 81 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 232.]

82. Declining to be dealt with under this Division

A person who receives an infringement notice may decline to be dealt with under the provisions of this Division and, if the person fails to pay the prescribed penalty within the time specified in the notice or within such further time as may, in any particular case, be allowed, the person is to be taken to have declined to be dealt with under those provisions.

83. Withdrawal of infringement notices

alleged offender, in relation to an infringement notice served on a responsible person under Division 2 or 3, means the responsible person.

(2) An infringement notice may, whether or not the prescribed penalty has been paid, be withdrawn by the sending of a notice, in the prescribed form, signed by a prescribed officer, to the alleged offender at his or her last known place of residence or business, advising the alleged offender that the infringement notice has been withdrawn; and, in that event, the amount of any prescribed penalty that has been paid must be refunded.

84. Effect of payment of prescribed penalty

(1) If a prescribed penalty has been paid under an infringement notice and the notice has not been withdrawn under section 83(2), no person is to be prosecuted for the offence alleged in the notice.

(2) The payment of the whole or a part of a penalty under an infringement notice constitutes, for the purposes of the Road Traffic (Authorisation to Drive) Act 2008 sections 16(1)(a) and 35(4)(b)(v) and the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 sections 126(6) and 128(4), a conviction of an offence, but is not to be regarded as an admission of liability for the purpose of, nor in any way affect or prejudice, any civil claim, action or proceeding arising out of the occurrence by reason of which the infringement notice was given.
(3) Subsection (2) applies even if the payment is made by means of a dishonoured cheque.

[Section 84 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 232; Road Traffic Legislation Amendment Bill (No. 2) 2015 cl. 17.]

85. Regulations as to infringement notices

The Governor may make regulations for any purpose for which regulations are contemplated or required by this section and, in particular, may make regulations —

(a) prescribing offences for the purposes of this Division, not being —

   (i) an offence punishable by imprisonment; or

   (ii) an offence in respect of which a court is required to disqualify the offender from holding or obtaining a driver’s licence; or

   (iii) an offence under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 4(2) the commission of which involves a heavy vehicle, by setting out the offences or by reference to the provision creating the offence or by reference to all or any offences in any one Part or other division of any regulations made under a road law; and

(b) prescribing penalties not exceeding 40 PU for any prescribed offence or class of prescribed offence and prescribing different penalties for the one offence, according to the circumstances by which the offence is attended.

[Section 85 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 232; No. 10 of 2015 s. 7.]

Division 2 — Infringement notices left on vehicles

86. Circumstances in which infringement notices can be left on vehicles

If —

(a) an offence for which an infringement notice may be given of which the standing, parking or leaving of vehicle is an element is alleged to have occurred; and
(b) the identity of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle is not known and cannot immediately be ascertained, an infringement notice for the alleged offence may be addressed to the responsible person for the vehicle, without naming the person or stating the person’s address, and may be served on the responsible person by leaving it in or upon, or attaching it to, the vehicle.

87. If more than one responsible person

If an infringement notice is served on a responsible person under section 86 and there is more than one responsible person, the notice is to be regarded as having been served on —

(a) if not more than one responsible person responds to the notice, that responsible person; or

(b) in any other case, not more than one responsible person chosen by the Commissioner of Police.

88. Effect of leaving infringement notice on vehicle

(1) If an infringement notice is served on a responsible person under section 86, the responsible person is to be presumed to have committed the offence alleged in the notice unless, within the period of 28 days after the day specified in the notice (being the day of the service of the notice or a subsequent day) —

(a) the penalty prescribed under section 79 for the alleged offence is paid; or

(b) the responsible person informs an officer specified in the notice that the responsible person was not the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the time of the alleged offence and supplies to the officer —

(i) the name and address of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at that time; or

(ii) information showing that the vehicle was stolen or unlawfully taken or used at that time.

(2) The presumption under subsection (1) applies even if the responsible person is not an individual.

89. Contents of infringement notices left on vehicles

An infringement notice served under section 86 must contain or be accompanied by a statement explaining the operation of section 88(1) and (2).
Division 3 — Infringement notices served on responsible persons

90. Terms used
In this Division —

period for complying means —
(a) if the infringement notice enclosing photographic evidence is served under section 91, the period of 28 days after the day specified in the notice (being the day of the service of the notice or a subsequent day);
(b) if the infringement notice enclosing photographic evidence is served under section 93, the period of 14 days after the day specified in the notice (being the day of the service of the notice or a subsequent day);

photographic evidence means —
(a) a photograph; or
(b) a cinematographic or other type of film, or video tape, video disk, slide or digital, electronic or other form of recording, from which a visual image can be produced.

91. Service of infringement notice on responsible person if identity of alleged offender not known
If —
(a) an offence for which an infringement notice may be given, other than an offence under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 4(2), and of which the driving or being in charge of a vehicle is an element is alleged to have occurred; and
(b) the belief mentioned in section 79 is based on photographic evidence; and
(c) the name and address of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle are not known and cannot immediately be ascertained; and
(d) the identity of the vehicle can be ascertained from the photographic evidence; and
(e) a responsible person for the vehicle is an individual, an infringement notice for the alleged offence may be addressed to the responsible person and may be served on the responsible person, personally or by post.

[Section 91 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 232; Road Traffic Legislation Amendment Bill (No. 2) 2015 cl. 18.]
92. If more than one responsible person

If there is more than one responsible person mentioned in section 91, an infringement notice under that section may be addressed to and served on not more than one of those persons chosen by the Commissioner of Police.

93. If photographic evidence not included with infringement notice

If an infringement notice is served on a responsible person under section 91 without enclosing the photographic evidence mentioned in section 91(b) and, at the end of the period of 14 days after the day specified in the notice (being the day of the service of the notice or a subsequent day) —

(a) the penalty prescribed under section 79 for the alleged offence has not been paid; and

(b) the responsible person has not informed an officer specified in the notice that the responsible person was not the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the time of the alleged offence and supplied to the officer —

(i) the name and address of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at that time; or

(ii) information showing that the vehicle was stolen or unlawfully taken or used at that time, a further infringement notice may be served on the responsible person enclosing the photographic evidence.

94. Responsible person presumed to be driver in certain circumstances

If an infringement notice enclosing photographic evidence is served on a responsible person under section 91 or 93, the responsible person is to be presumed to be the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the time of the offence alleged in the notice unless, within the period for complying defined in section 90 —

(a) the penalty prescribed under section 79 for the alleged offence is paid; or
(b) the responsible person informs an officer specified in the notice that the responsible person was not the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the time of the alleged offence and supplies to the officer —

(i) the name and address of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at that time; or

(ii) information showing that the vehicle was stolen or unlawfully taken or used at that time; or

(iii) a statutory declaration that the responsible person did not know, and could not reasonably have ascertained, the name and address of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at that time.

95. Contents of infringement notices served on responsible persons

An infringement notice enclosing photographic evidence served under section 91 or 93 must contain or be accompanied by a statement explaining the operation of section 94.

96. Statutory declarations: requirements as to delivery etc.

A statutory declaration under section 94(b)(iii) must be contained in or accompanied by the infringement notice to which it relates and must be posted to an officer specified in the notice or delivered personally to the officer or the officer in charge of a police station.

Division 4 — Notices requesting information from responsible persons

97. Term used: period for complying

In this Division —

period for complying means —

(a) if the notice is served under section 98 without enclosing the photographic evidence mentioned in section 91(b), the period of 14 days after the day specified in the notice (being the day of the service of the notice or a subsequent day);

(b) if the notice is served under section 98 enclosing the photographic evidence mentioned in section 91(b), the period of 28 days after the day specified in the notice.
98. Notices requesting information

If an infringement notice could be addressed to and served on a responsible person under Division 3 but for there not being any individual who is a responsible person for the vehicle, a police officer may serve a notice on a responsible person for the vehicle —

(a) describing the offence that is alleged to have been committed; and

(b) requesting the responsible person to, within the period for complying defined in section 97, supply to an officer specified in the notice the name and address of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the time of the offence so described.

99. If photographic evidence not included with notice

If a notice is served on a responsible person under section 98 without enclosing the photographic evidence mentioned in section 91(b) and, at the end of 14 days after the day specified in the notice (being the day of the service of the notice or a subsequent day), the responsible person has not supplied to an officer specified in the notice —

(a) the name and address of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the time of the offence described in the notice; or

(b) information showing that the vehicle was stolen or unlawfully taken or used at that time, a further notice of the kind described in section 98 may be served on the responsible person enclosing the photographic evidence but in the further notice the period specified for complying with the request is to be the period of 14 days after the day specified in the further notice (being the day of the service of the further notice or a subsequent day).

100. Offence of failing to provide information, statutory declaration

(1) A responsible person on which a notice enclosing photographic evidence is served under section 98 or 99 commits an offence unless, within the period specified in the notice for complying with the request, the responsible person supplies to an officer specified in the notice —

(a) the name and address of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the time of the offence described in the notice; or

(b) information showing that the vehicle was stolen or unlawfully taken or used at the time of the offence described in the notice; or

(c) a statutory declaration that the responsible person did not know, and could not reasonably have ascertained, the name and address of the driver or person in charge of the vehicle at the time of the offence described in the notice.

Penalty: double the amount of the fine provided under a road law for the offence described in the notice or, if more than one amount is so provided, double the lower or lowest of those amounts.

(2) If a person is charged with an offence under subsection (1) the person may be convicted of an offence under section 35.

101. Withdrawal of notices

(1) A notice served on a person under section 98 or 99 may be withdrawn at any time before the end of the period specified in the notice for complying with the request by sending a notice to that effect, in the prescribed form and signed by a prescribed officer, to the person at the person’s last known place of business.

(2) If the amount of the modified penalty mentioned in section 104(1) has been paid before a notice is withdrawn under subsection (1), any amount so paid is to be refunded.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not affect the operation of section 83(2) in relation to a notice when it is regarded under section 104(2) as an infringement notice.

102. Contents of notices

A notice enclosing photographic evidence served under section 98 or 99 must contain or be accompanied by a statement explaining the operation of sections 100(1) and 104.
103. Statutory declarations: requirements as to delivery etc.

A statutory declaration under section 100(1)(c) must be contained in or accompanied by the notice to which it relates and must be posted to an officer specified in the notice or delivered personally to the officer or the officer in charge of a police station.

104. Notice under s. 98 or 99 may become an infringement notice

(1) An offence under section 100(1) is prescribed for the purposes of section 79 and the penalty for that offence if dealt with under section 79 (the modified penalty) is an amount of double the amount of the fine prescribed under section 79 for the offence described in the notice under section 98.

(2) If a person on which a notice enclosing photographic evidence is served under section 98 or 99 fails to comply with the notice, the notice is to be regarded as also being an infringement notice served on the person for the offence under section 100(1) constituted by that failure to comply.

(3) For the purposes of sections 79 and 82 and any other enactment, the specified time for the payment of the modified penalty is the period of 14 days after the end of the period mentioned in section 100(1).

(4) Subject to section 101(1), if the amount of the modified penalty has been paid before the day on which a notice is to be regarded under this section as an infringement notice, the amount may be held until that day and then treated as an amount received in payment of the modified penalty.

(5) Despite section 84(2) the payment of the modified penalty does not constitute a conviction of an offence for any purpose.
Part 6 — Prosecutions

Division 1 — Commencing prosecutions

105. Who may commence prosecution

(1) A prosecution for an offence under the Road Traffic Act 1974 can be commenced only by —
   (a) a police officer; or
   (b) a person authorised under section 23; or
   (c) a person authorised to do so by the Commissioner of Police.

(2) A prosecution for an offence under a road law other than the Road Traffic Act 1974 can be commenced only by —
   (a) a police officer; or
   (b) a person authorised under section 22; or
   (c) a person authorised to do so by the CEO.

(3) Nothing in this section affects the operation of the Director of Public Prosecutions Act 1991 section 11.

(3A) A prosecution for an offence under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 29(1) requires the approval of a prescribed person or a person of a prescribed class of persons.

(3B) Failure to comply with subsection (3A) does not affect the validity of the prosecution notice.

[Section 105 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 219.]

106. When prosecution can be commenced

(1) A prosecution of a person for an offence under any of the following provisions must be commenced within 2 years after the date on which the offence was allegedly committed —
   (a) Part 4, other than an offence prescribed by the regulations as an offence to which subsection (2) applies;
   (b) the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 49(1)(a);
   (c) the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012, other than an offence prescribed by the regulations as an offence to which subsection (2) applies.
(2) A prosecution of a person for any other offence under a road law must be commenced within 12 months after the date on which the offence was allegedly committed.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to an indictable offence.

(4) Subsection (3) has effect, in relation to an offence that was allegedly committed before the day on which the Road Traffic Legislation Amendment Act (No. 2) 2015 section 19 comes into operation, as if that section had come into operation on the day on which this Act (other than sections 1 and 2) came into operation (that is, 27 April 2015).

[Section 106 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 232, Road Traffic Legislation Amendment Bill (No. 2) 2015 cl. 19.]

107. Limitation on period for which previous offences taken into account

If —

(a) a person is convicted of an offence under a road law (the present offence); and

(b) the penalty or penalties which may or are required to be imposed for the present offence vary according to whether the person has been convicted previously of an offence under a road law, any previous offence the conviction for which was recorded more than 20 years before the commission of the present offence is not to be taken into account in determining the penalty or penalties to be imposed for the present offence.

108. Production of licences, permits at hearings

A person who is —

(a) the holder of a driver’s licence or learner’s permit; and

(b) charged with an offence under a road law, must produce his or her driver’s licence document or learner’s permit on demand to the court hearing the charge.

Penalty: a fine of 50 PU.
Division 2 — Evidentiary provisions

109. Averments etc. in prosecution notices

(1) In a prosecution for an offence under a road law an averment in the prosecution notice as to any of the following matters is to be taken to be proved in the absence of proof to the contrary —

(a) that on a specified date a person was or was not an owner of, or a responsible person for, a vehicle or became an owner of, or a responsible person for, a vehicle;

(b) that on a specified date a person was or was not the holder of a driver’s licence, learner’s permit or vehicle licence (either generally or in respect of a particular vehicle);

(c) that on a specified date a specified driver’s licence, learner’s permit or vehicle licence was or was not granted, renewed, varied, suspended, cancelled or surrendered under a road law;

(d) that on a specified date a person was disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver’s licence for a specified period;

(e) that on a specified date a vehicle was driven or used on a road or any place to which the public is permitted, whether on payment of a fee or otherwise, to have access;

(f) that the alleged offender was, at the time of the alleged offence, a person to whom the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 62B(4) or 64A(1) applied;

(gaa) that the vehicle to which the alleged offence relates was, at the time of the alleged offence, a motor vehicle referred to in the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 62B(5);

(ga) that the vehicle to which the alleged offence relates was, at the time of the alleged offence, a motor vehicle to which the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 64A(4) applied;

(g) that the person by whom the prosecution was commenced is authorised to commence the prosecution;

(h) that an offence was committed within a local government district or any part of the State specified in the prosecution notice;

(i) that an offence was committed at a time, on a date or during a period specified in the prosecution notice;
(j) that on a specified date a vehicle was a heavy vehicle or a light vehicle or of a particular class of heavy or light vehicle;

(k) that a specified exemption granted under a road law did or did not apply to a specified person or a specified vehicle at a specified time;

(l) that a mass or dimension requirement modified under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 4 Division 2 Subdivision 2 in a specified manner did or did not apply to a specified person or a specified vehicle at a specified time;

(m) that an access approval given under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 40 did or did not apply to a specified person or a specified vehicle at a specified time;

(n) that a specified requirement imposed under a road law did or did not apply to a specified person or a specified vehicle at a specified time;

(o) that at a specified time a specified vehicle, with or without a load, or a specified part of a specified vehicle, with or without a load, was weighed on a specified weighbridge or by the use of a specified weighing device and that a specified mass was the mass of the vehicle or part;

(p) that on a specified date a specified road was closed for a specified period or subject to a specified condition;

(q) that on a specified date, specified premises were an inspection station;

(r) that a specified person had or had not notified the CEO of a change of address;

(s) that a specified document was or was not lodged, or a specified fee was or was not paid, by a specified person.

(2) If, in a prosecution notice for an offence under a road law, the name of the accused is that given by the alleged offender at the time of, or immediately following, the occurrence giving rise to the charge, there is a presumption, rebuttable by evidence to the contrary, that the accused is the alleged offender.
(3) In the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof is not required in any proceedings for an offence under a road law —

   (a) that the prosecutor is authorised to commence the prosecution; or

   (b) that the prosecutor has any approval that is required under section 105(3A); or

   (c) that a signature on the prosecution notice alleging the offence is the signature of a person authorised to commence the prosecution.

   [Section 109 amended by No. 14 of 2011 s. 18; No. 8 of 2012 s. 220 and 232; Road Traffic Legislation Amendment Bill (No. 2) 2015 cl. 60.]

110. Certificate evidence

   (1) For the purposes of a prosecution for an offence under a road law or verifying the accuracy of information provided to corresponding authority under section 13(1) or to another Australian driver licensing authority under section 14(2), the CEO or a person authorised by the CEO may issue a certificate stating that a fact specified in the certificate appears in or is derived from the driver’s licence register or another record kept by the CEO or the Commissioner for Main Roads under a road law.

   (2) A certificate purporting to be issued under subsection (1) or under a law in force in another jurisdiction that corresponds to that subsection is evidence of any fact stated in the certificate.

   (3) For the purposes of a prosecution for an offence under any written law the CEO or any person authorised by the CEO for that purpose may issue a certificate which states —

   (a) that on a specified date or during a specified period —

       (i) a vehicle was registered; or

       (ii) a vehicle was not registered, under a road law in the name of any person specified in the certificate; or

   (b) that at a specified date or during a specified period a specified person in the certificate was —

       (i) registered as the holder of a vehicle licence in respect of a specified vehicle; or

       (ii) nominated under section 5(2) as the owner of a specified vehicle.

   [This compilation shows amendments proposed by Bill No. 151-1B Pt. 2 Div. 2, Pt. 3 Div. 3 Subdiv. 2 and Div. 4 Subdiv. 2.]
(4) In a prosecution for an offence under any written law —
   (a) a certificate issued or purporting to be issued under subsection (3) is evidence of the facts stated in the certificate; and
   (b) a certificate or other document issued or purporting to be issued under a law of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth which states that on a specified date or during a specified period —
      (i) a vehicle was registered in the name of a specified person; or
      (ii) a vehicle was not registered in the State or Territory in respect of which the certificate or other document is issued,

   (5) In a prosecution for an offence under any written law a certificate purporting to have been issued by the CEO or a corresponding authority or an Australian police officer as to any matter that appears in or can be surmised or calculated from records kept or accessed by the CEO, corresponding authority or officer is evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

111. Proof of authority of warden, vehicle examiner

   (1) A document purporting to be an authorisation, or a copy of an authorisation of —
      (a) the CEO under section 22; or
      (b) the Commissioner under section 23; or
      (c) the CEO for the purposes of —
         (i) paragraph (b) of the definition of “inspection station” in the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 70; or
         (ii) paragraph (b) of the definition of “vehicle examiner” in the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 70,

   (2) An identification card purporting to have been issued under section 25 is evidence in any proceedings that the person concerned has the functions specified in the card.
(3) A statement in a certificate purporting to have been issued by —
(a) the CEO as to a person’s authority under section 22 to perform a function that can be performed by a warden; or
(b) the Commissioner of Police as to a person’s authority under section 23 to perform a function that can be performed by a warden; or
(c) the CEO as to a public service officer’s functions relating to the examination and testing of vehicles for the purposes of the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012; or
(d) the CEO as to a person’s authority under paragraph (b) of the definition of “vehicle examiner” in the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 70, is admissible in any proceedings and is prima facie evidence of the matters stated.

[Section 111 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 221 and 232.]

112. Ascertaining of mass by weighbridge

(1) The mass of a vehicle or the mass supported on any part of a vehicle, whether loaded or not, may be ascertained by weighing the vehicle or part of the vehicle on —
(a) a public weighbridge, as defined in the National Measurement Act 1960 (Commonwealth) section 3(1), that is mentioned in a public weighbridge licence in force under Part XI of that Act; or
(b) a weighbridge as defined in section 3(1) of that Act, other than a public weighbridge, that is verified under that Act.

(2) Evidence of a record made by —
(a) the licensee who has been granted a licence mentioned in subsection (1)(a); or
(b) the operator of a weighbridge mentioned in subsection (1)(b); or
(c) a person employed by such a licensee or operator to operate the weighbridge, of the mass of a vehicle or part of a vehicle weighed at the weighbridge is admissible in any proceedings under a road law and is prima facie evidence of the mass of the vehicle or part at the time it was weighed.

[Section 112 amended by No. 54 of 2010 s. 10.]
113. Ascertainment of mass by loadmeter etc.

   (1) In this section —

   loadmeter means a portable weighing device designed to determine —

   (a) a vehicle’s total mass, including its load if any; or

   (b) a vehicle’s wheel load; or

   (c) the load of a vehicle’s axle group.

   (2) The mass of a vehicle or the mass supported on any part of a vehicle, whether loaded or not, may be ascertained by use of one or more loadmeters or other prescribed device.

   (3) If one or more loadmeters are used to ascertain the mass of a vehicle, including its load if any, then for the purpose of determining whether or not the vehicle and load comply with a road law, the mass of the vehicle and load is to be taken to be the mass ascertained by aggregating the relevant readings of the loadmeter or loadmeters.

   (4) If a loadmeter is used to ascertain the mass supported on a particular part of a vehicle, then for the purpose of determining whether or not the vehicle and its load if any comply with a road law, the mass supported on the part is to be taken to be the mass as ascertained less the prescribed amount.

   (5) If a loadmeter is used to ascertain the mass of a vehicle and its load, this section does not prevent a person charged with an offence related to the mass of the vehicle and load as calculated in accordance from adducing evidence of the actual mass of the vehicle and load at the material time.

114. Ascertainment of mass by reference to manufacturer’s specifications

   If the mass of a vehicle or the mass supported on any part of a vehicle, whether loaded or not, cannot be, or cannot conveniently be, ascertained under section 112 or 113 —

   (a) if the load comprises only equipment, the mass of the equipment, ascertained by reference to the manufacturer’s specification (if any) relating to the equipment, is to be taken to be the mass of the load; and

   (b) the unloaded mass of the vehicle as defined in section 16(2) and as ascertained by reference to the manufacturer’s specification (if any) relating to the vehicle, is to be taken to be the mass of the vehicle; and
(c) the aggregate of the masses ascertained under paragraphs (a) and (b), together with the mass of 10 L of fuel, is to be taken to be the mass of the vehicle and its load.

115. Evidence regarding manufacturer’s ratings

(1) Evidence of a written statement purporting to be made by the manufacturer of a vehicle or part of a vehicle regarding the mass rating of the vehicle or part determined by the manufacturer is admissible in any proceedings under a road law and is prima face evidence —

(a) of the mass rating; and
(b) of any conditions to which the rating is subject included in the statement; and
(c) that the statement was made by the manufacturer of the vehicle or part.

(2) Evidence of a written statement purporting to be made by the manufacturer of load restraint equipment designed for use on a vehicle or a part of a vehicle regarding the strength or performance rating of the equipment determined by the manufacturer is admissible in any proceedings and is prima face evidence —

(a) of the strength or performance rating; and
(b) that the equipment was designed for that use; and
(c) of any conditions to which the rating is subject included in the statement; and
(d) that the statement was made by the manufacturer of the equipment.

(3) Evidence of a written statement purporting to be made by the manufacturer of equipment that comprises a load is admissible in any proceedings and is prima face evidence of the mass of the equipment.

116. Proof of appointments and signatures unnecessary

(1) In this section —

office holder means —

(a) the CEO; or
(b) the Commissioner of Police or any other police officer; or
(c) a person authorised under section 22 or 23; or
(d) a person authorised by the CEO for the purposes of section 105(2)(c); or
(e) a person who may give an approval for the purposes of section 105(3A); or
(f) an approved officer, as that term is defined in the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 77.

(2) For the purposes of a road law, it is not necessary to prove the appointment of an office holder.

(3) For the purposes of a road law, a signature purporting to be the signature of an office holder is evidence of the signature it purports to be.

[Section 116 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 222.]

117. Certain measuring equipment

(1) In this section and section 118A — approved procedure, in relation to setting up, installing, testing or retrieving data from speed measuring and recording equipment or producing images from the data, means the procedure approved by the Commissioner of Police.

authorised person —

(a) in relation to distance measuring equipment, means —

(i) a police officer; or

(ii) a person certified by the Commissioner of Police as being competent to use the equipment;

and

(b) in relation to speed measuring equipment, means —

(i) a police officer; or

(ii) a person certified by the Commissioner of Police as being competent to use the equipment;

and

(c) in relation to speed measuring and recording equipment, means —

(i) a police officer; or

(ii) a person certified by the Commissioner of Police as being competent to install, set up, test or retrieve data from the equipment or produce images from the data; distance measuring equipment means apparatus of a type approved by the Minister under subsection (2)(b); (3);

Minister means the Minister to whom the administration of the Police Act 1892 is committed;

Minister means the Minister of the Crown to whom the administration of the Road Traffic Act 1974 is for the time being committed by the Governor;

speed measuring and recording equipment means apparatus of a type approved by the Minister under subsection (2)(c); speed measuring equipment means apparatus of a type approved by the Minister under subsection (2)(a)(2).

(2) The Minister may, from time to time, by notice published in the Gazette, approve of types of apparatus for the purposes of —

(a) ascertaining the speed at which a vehicle is moving; or

(b) ascertaining distances on roads; or

(c) ascertaining the speed at which a vehicle is moving, recording an image of the vehicle and recording —

(i) the speed at which the vehicle was moving; and

(ii) the date on which the image was recorded; and

(iii) the time and location at which the image was recorded; and

(iv) the speed limit applicable at that location at that time.

(3) The Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, revoke an approval under subsection (2).

(2) The Minister may, from time to time, by notice published in the Gazette, approve of types of apparatus for the purpose of ascertaining the speed at which a vehicle is moving and may, by notice so published, revoke any such approval.

(3) The Minister may, from time to time, by notice published in the Gazette, approve of types of apparatus for the purpose of ascertaining distances on roads and may, by notice so published, revoke any such approval.

(4) In a prosecution for an offence under any written law evidence may be given of the use of speed measuring equipment by an authorised person in relation to a vehicle and of the speed at which that vehicle was moving as ascertained by the use of that equipment, and that evidence is prima facie evidence of the speed at which that vehicle was moving at the time of the use of that equipment in relation to that vehicle.

(5) In a prosecution for an offence under any written law evidence may be given of the use of distance measuring equipment by an authorised person on a road, of the distance between 2 identified points on the road as ascertained by the use of that equipment and of the ascertainment of the speed at which a vehicle was moving by the measurement of the time taken by that vehicle to travel that distance, and that evidence is prima facie evidence of the speed at which that vehicle was moving when it travelled that distance.

(6) In a prosecution for an offence under a written law involving the driving of a vehicle, evidence may be given of—

(a) the use of speed measuring and recording equipment at a particular location; and

(b) the identity of the vehicle as recorded by that equipment at a particular time; and

(c) the speed at which the vehicle was moving as ascertained and recorded by that equipment at that time.

(7A) The evidence referred to in subsection (6) is prima facie evidence of the identity of the vehicle and the speed at which it was moving at that time and location.

(7B) In a prosecution mentioned in subsection (6), evidence of the matters referred to in that subsection may be given in the form of an image of the vehicle on which is recorded the matters referred to in subsection (2)(c), as ascertained and recorded by the speed measuring and recording equipment at the time and location referred to in subsection (6).

(6) In a prosecution mentioned in subsection (4), evidence by an authorised person that apparatus used by the person was speed measuring equipment is prima facie evidence of that fact.

(7) In a prosecution mentioned in subsection (4), (5) or (6), evidence by an authorised person that apparatus used by the person was speed measuring equipment, speed measuring and recording equipment or distance measuring equipment is prima facie evidence of that fact.

(8) In a prosecution mentioned in subsection (4), (5) or (6), a certificate purporting to be signed by the Commissioner of Police certifying that a specified person is, or was at the material time, a person certified by the Commissioner as being competent to —

(a) use distance measuring equipment; or

(b) use speed measuring equipment; or

(c) install, set up, test or retrieve data from, speed measuring and recording equipment or produce images from the data, is prima facie evidence of the matters in the certificate, without proof of the signature of the person purporting to have signed it or proof that the purported signatory was the Commissioner.

(8) In a prosecution mentioned in subsection (4) or (5), a certificate purporting to be signed by the Commissioner of Police certifying that a specified person is, or was at the material time, a person certified by the Commissioner as being competent to use distance measuring equipment or to use speed measuring equipment is prima facie evidence of the matters in the certificate, without proof of the signature of the person purporting to have signed it or proof that the purported signatory was the Commissioner.

(9) Nothing in this section is to be construed as precluding or restricting the introduction of any competent evidence, whether in addition to, or independent of, any evidence for which provision is made by this section, bearing on the question of whether a person was or was not guilty of an offence under a written law.

(10) If the certification of a person for the purposes of paragraph (b)(ii) of the definition of authorised person in subsection (1) was in effect immediately before commencement day, the certification has effect in relation to installing, setting up, testing and retrieving data from speed measuring and recording equipment on and after commencement day as if it were also the certification of the person for the purposes of paragraph (c)(ii) of that definition in relation to those matters.

(11) An approval under subsection (2) or (3) that was in effect immediately before commencement day has effect on and after commencement day, according to its terms, as if made under subsection (2) as in effect on and after commencement day.

118A. Evidentiary provisions for images recorded by speed measuring and recording equipment

(1) If, in a prosecution mentioned in section 117(6), evidence is given in the form of an image as described in section 117(7B) and the image is accompanied by a certificate under subsection (2), the image —
   (a) is to be accepted as having been recorded as described in section 117(7B), unless there is evidence to the contrary; and

   (b) is prima facie evidence of the matters shown in or recorded on the image.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the certificate is a certificate purporting to be signed by the Commissioner of Police, certifying that —
   (a) the equipment, specified in the certificate, was speed measuring and recording equipment as defined in section 117(1); and

   (b) the equipment was installed or set up by an authorised person, named in the certificate, in accordance with the approved procedure on a day specified in the certificate; and

   (c) the equipment was tested by an authorised person, named in the certificate, in accordance with the approved procedure on a day, specified in the certificate, that was within the prescribed number of days (for that type of equipment) after the day on which the alleged offence took place; and

   (d) on the day referred to in paragraph (c), the equipment was accurate and operating properly; and

   (e) data relating to the vehicle and its speed, and the time and place at which its speed was ascertained and the data recorded, was retrieved from the equipment by an authorised person, named in the certificate, in accordance with the approved procedure; and

(12) In subsections (10) and (11) — commencement day means the day on which the Road Traffic Legislation Amendment Act (No. 2) 2015 section 66 comes into operation.

(f) the data referred to in paragraph (e) was used to produce the image by an authorised person, named in the certificate, in accordance with the approved procedure.

(3) The certificate is prima facie evidence of the matters in it.

(4) Except with the consent of the accused, a certificate described in subsection (2) cannot be given in the proceedings and, if it is given, is not admissible, unless a copy of the image and the certificate is given to the accused at least 28 days before the proceedings.

(5) If a copy of the image and the certificate have been given as required by subsection (4), the accused cannot challenge or call into question a matter certified or set out in the certificate unless —

(a) notice in writing of the accused’s intention is given to the prosecutor at least 14 days before the proceedings; or

(b) the court, in the interests of justice, gives the accused leave to so do.

(6) A notice under subsection (5)(a) must specify the matter that is to be challenged or called into question.

(7) In a prosecution mentioned in section 117(6), it is to be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that a certificate described in subsection (2) purporting to have been signed by the Commissioner of Police was so signed, without proof of the signature of the person purporting to have signed it or proof that the purported signatory was the Commissioner.

[Section 118A inserted by the Road Traffic Legislation Amendment Bill (No. 2) 2015 cl. 67.]

118. Proof of transport, journey documentation

In a prosecution for an offence under a road law, transport documentation or journey documentation is admissible without further proof and the following matters mentioned in the documentation are to be taken to be proved in the absence of proof to the contrary —

(a) the identity and status of the parties to the transaction to which it relates, including a person’s status as an involved person;

(b) the destination or intended destination of the load to which it relates.
119. Bodies corporate or employers, conduct on behalf of

(1) In this section —

- director of a body corporate, includes a constituent member of a body corporate incorporated for a public purpose by a written law or a law of the Commonwealth, another State or a Territory;

- engaging in conduct includes failing or refusing to engage in conduct;

- state of mind of a person includes —

  (a) the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person; and

  (b) the person’s reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.

(2) This section applies to and in relation to proceedings for an offence under a road law.

(3) If it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show —

  (a) that the conduct was engaged in by a director, employee or agent of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and

  (b) that the director, employee or agent had the relevant state of mind.

(4) Conduct engaged in on behalf of a body corporate by a director, employee or agent of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority is to be taken to have been engaged in also by the body corporate, unless the body corporate establishes that it took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.

(5) If it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a person other than a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show —

  (a) that the conduct was engaged in by an employee or agent of the person within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and

  (b) that the employee or agent had the relevant state of mind.

(6) Conduct engaged in on behalf of an employer other than a body corporate by an employee or agent of the employer within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority is to be taken to have been engaged in also by the employer unless the employer establishes that the employer took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.

120. Burden of proof where load falls off vehicle

If the prosecution in proceedings for an offence of breaching a loading requirement under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 proves that a load, or part of a load, had fallen off a vehicle, the burden of proof is on the accused to show that the load was secured so that it was unlikely to fall or be dislodged from the vehicle.

[Section 120 amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 232.]

Division 3 — Sentencing matters

121. Minimum fines

Without limiting the Sentencing Act 1995, and despite any other written law, a pecuniary penalty provided for or in relation to an offence under a road law that is expressed to be a minimum penalty, whether by the use of the expression “minimum penalty” or “not less than” or another like expression, is irreducible in mitigation.

122. Penalties for bodies corporate

The provision in a road law of a penalty for a body corporate does not affect the operation of the Sentencing Act 1995 section 40(5) in relation to an offence under a road law that does not provide for a penalty for a body corporate.
Part 7 — Damage to road infrastructure

123. Terms used

In this Part — compensation order means an order under section 124(1);

road authority means —

(a) a public authority that is responsible for the care, control or management of roads; or

(b) any person or body (whether or not a public authority) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this definition, in relation to specified roads or specified classes of roads; road infrastructure includes —

(a) a road, including its surface or pavement; and

(b) anything under or supporting a road or its surface or pavement and maintained by a road authority; and

(c) any bridge, tunnel, causeway, road-ferry, ford or other work or structure forming part of a road system or supporting a road; and

(d) any bridge or other work or structure located above, in or on a road and maintained by a road authority; and

(e) any traffic control devices, railway or tramway equipment, electricity equipment, emergency telephone systems or any other facilities (whether of the same or a different kind) in, on, over, under or connected with anything mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d); and

(f) any trees or other vegetation on a road reservation, median strip or traffic island; and

(g) anything declared by the regulations to be included in this definition, but does not include anything declared by the regulations to be excluded from this definition.

124. Compensation orders for damage to road infrastructure in consequence of MDLR offences

(1) The court that finds a person guilty of an MDLR offence may make a compensation order requiring the offender to pay a road authority such amount by way of compensation as the court thinks fit for damage to any road infrastructure that the road authority has incurred or is likely to incur in consequence of the offence.

(2) A compensation order may be made on the application of the prosecutor, the road authority or the CEO.

(3) A compensation order is to be made in favour of the road authority.

(4) The court may make a compensation order where it is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the commission of the offence caused or contributed to the damage.

(5) The court may make a compensation order when it finds the offender guilty of the offence or at any time afterwards, but not later than the period within which a prosecution for the offence could have been commenced.

125. Assessment of compensation

(1) In making a compensation order, the court may assess the amount of compensation in such manner as it considers appropriate, including (for example) the estimated cost of remedying the damage.

(2) In assessing the amount of compensation, the court may take into account such matters as it considers relevant, including —

(a) evidence adduced in connection with the prosecution of the offence; and

(b) evidence not adduced in connection with the prosecution of the offence but adduced in connection with the making of the proposed order; and

(c) a certificate of the road authority stating that the road authority maintains the road concerned; and

(d) any other certificate of the road authority, such as a certificate —

(i) estimating the monetary value of all or any part of the road infrastructure or of the damage to it; or

(ii) estimating the cost of remedying the damage; or

(iii) estimating the extent of the offender’s contribution to the damage.
126. Service of certificates

(1) In this section —

certificate means a certificate mentioned in section 125(2).

(2) If a road authority proposes to use a certificate, the road authority must serve a copy of the certificate on the accused at least 28 days before the day on which the matter is set down for hearing.

(3) A certificate cannot be used in the proceedings unless a copy of the certificate has been served in accordance with this section.

(4) An accused who wishes to challenge a statement in a certificate must serve a notice in writing on the road authority at least 14 days before the day on which the matter is set down for hearing.

(5) The notice of intention is to specify the matters in the certificate that are intended to be challenged.

(6) If the accused intends to challenge the accuracy of any measurement, analysis or reading in the certificate, the accused must specify the reasons in support of the accused’s allegations that it is inaccurate and must specify the measurement, analysis or reading that the accused considers to be correct.

(7) The accused cannot challenge any matter in the certificate if the requirements of this section have not been complied with in relation to the certificate, unless the court gives leave to do so.

127. Limits on amount of compensation

(1) When making a compensation order, if the court is satisfied that the commission of the offence concerned contributed to the damage but that other factors not connected with the commission of the offence also contributed to the damage, the court is to limit the amount of the compensation payable by the offender to the amount it assesses as being the offender’s contribution to the damage.

(2) The maximum amount of compensation is not to exceed the monetary jurisdictional limit of the court in civil proceedings.

(3) The court is not to include in the order any amount for —

(a) personal injury or death; or

(b) loss of income (whether sustained by a road authority or any other person or organisation); or
128. Costs

The court has the same power to award costs in relation to the proceedings for a compensation order as it has in relation to civil proceedings, and the relevant provisions of laws applying to costs in relation to civil proceedings apply with any necessary adaptations to costs in relation to the proceedings for the compensation order.

129. Enforcement of compensation order and costs

A compensation order, and any award of costs, are enforceable as if they were a judgment of the court in civil proceedings.

130. Relationship with orders or awards of other courts and tribunals

(1) A compensation order is not to be made if another court or tribunal has awarded compensatory damages or compensation in civil proceedings in respect of the damage based on the same or similar facts, and if a court purports to make an order under this Part in those circumstances —

(a) the order has no effect to the extent that it covers the same matters as those covered by the other award; and

(b) any payments made under the order to the extent to which it has no effect must be repaid by the road authority.

(2) The making of a compensation order does not prevent another court or tribunal from afterwards awarding damages or compensation in civil proceedings in respect of the damage based on the same or similar facts, but the court or tribunal must take the order into account when awarding damages or compensation.

131. Liability for damage to road infrastructure

(1) Each responsible person for a vehicle is jointly and severally liable in damages to a road authority for any expense or loss incurred by that road authority because of damage to road infrastructure caused by, or happening as a result of —

(a) the use of the vehicle on a road; or
s. 132

(b) the passage along a road of the vehicle or of anything carried, drawn, or propelled by the vehicle.

(2) Those damages may be recovered by proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) If any damage of a kind mentioned in subsection (1) causes a hazard to other traffic, the person in charge of the vehicle —

(a) must immediately place a conspicuous warning mark or sign on or near the road infrastructure that is damaged; and

(b) must, as soon as practicable, inform the officer in charge of the nearest police station of the damage.

Penalty: a fine of 50 PU.

(4) In any proceedings for the recovery of damages under this section a certificate of the kind mentioned in section 110(4) is evidence for the purposes of proving who is a responsible person for the vehicle as though the proceedings were a prosecution for an offence.

132. Road authority may recover expenses of damage caused by heavy traffic

(1) In this section —

Government road means —

(a) a road declared by Order in Council under the Public Works Act 1902 section 86(2) to be a Government road; or

(b) a highway or main road as those terms are defined in the Main Roads Act 1930;

heavy traffic includes —

(a) traffic comprising heavy vehicles; or

(b) a high volume of traffic.

(2) Where it appears to the road authority that has functions in relation to the repair of road infrastructure that, having regard to the average expense of repairing road infrastructure in the vicinity, extraordinary expenses have been incurred by the road authority in repairing the road infrastructure because of damage caused by heavy traffic, the road authority may recover the amount of the expenses as may be proved to the satisfaction of the court to have been incurred by the road authority because of damage caused by heavy traffic.
(3) Those expenses may be recovered —
   (a) from a person by, or in consequence of, whose directions the heavy traffic has been conducted; and
   (b) by proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) A person against whom expenses are or may be recoverable under this section may enter into an agreement with the road authority for payment to it in respect of heavy traffic, and on making the payment as agreed the person is not to be subject to any proceedings under this section.

(5) For the purposes of this section the Minister is to be taken to be the road authority that has functions in relation to the repair of a Government road, and the Minister may bring an action for recovery of expenses under this section accordingly and any money recovered is to be credited to the Consolidated Account.

(6) Proceedings for the recovery of expenses under this section cannot be commenced —
   (a) in the case where the damage is the consequence of a particular building contract or work extending over a long period, if 6 months have elapsed since the completion of the contract or work; and
   (b) in any other case, if 12 months have elapsed since the damage occurred.
Part 8 — Miscellaneous

133. Review of decisions under road laws

(1) The regulations are to provide for the review of a decision —

(a) of the CEO made under the Road Traffic (Authorisation to Drive) Act 2008 Part 2 and give the Commissioner of Police a right to be heard in proceedings for the review of a decision of the CEO made under that Part; or

(b) to grant, renew, transfer, vary, cancel or suspend a licence, under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 2, or to refuse to do any of those things; or

(c) under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 4 Division 2 to modify a mass or dimension requirement or to vary, suspend or cancel a modified mass or dimension requirement, or to specify in an order or permit a matter in relation to a modified mass or dimension requirement, to refuse to do any of those things; or

(d) under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 4 Division 3 to give, vary, suspend or cancel an access approval, or to specify in an order or permit a matter in relation to an access approval, or to refuse to do any of those things; or

(e) to accredit a person under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Division 4 or to vary, suspend or cancel an accreditation, or to impose a requirement in relation to an accreditation, or to refuse to do any of those things; or

(f) of an approved officer, as that term is defined in the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 77, to give or amend an improvement notice as defined in that section and give whoever of the CEO or the Commissioner of Police who nominated a person as the approved officer a right to be heard in proceedings for the review of such a decision; or

(g) to grant, vary, suspend or cancel an exemption defined in the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 135, or to impose a condition in relation to such an exemption, or to refuse to do any of those things.
134. Amendment or revocation of directions or conditions

A police officer may amend or revoke a direction given, or a condition imposed, under a road law by a police officer or a warden.

135. Protection from liability for wrongdoing

(1) An action in tort does not lie against a person for anything that the person has done, in good faith, in the performance or purported performance of a function under a road law.

(2) The Minister to whom the administration of a particular road law is for the time being committed by the Governor, the CEO, the Commissioner of Police, the Commissioner for Main Roads, and the Crown are also relieved of any liability that any of them might otherwise have had for another person having done anything as described in subsection (1).

(3) A local government is also relieved of any liability that it might otherwise have had for another person having done anything as described in subsection (1) in relation to a function of a local government under section 11, 139 or 141.

(4) The protection given by this section applies even though the thing done as described in subsection (1) may have been capable of being done whether or not this Act had been enacted.

(5) Subsection (1) does not relieve a contractor of any liability that the contractor might otherwise have for anything done or omitted to be done, as described in that subsection, by the contractor or another person.

(6) In subsection (5) —

contractor means a person who has entered into a contract with the Commissioner of Police under the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 78D.

(7) In this section, a reference to the doing of anything includes a reference to an omission to do anything.
136. Protection of people testing or examining or giving certain information

(1) The protection given by this section is in addition to any protection given by section 135.

(2) A person is not to be prosecuted for an offence for expressing to the CEO, in good faith, an opinion formed as a result of having carried out a test or examination under a road law.

(3) An action in tort does not lie against a person, and a person is not to be prosecuted for an offence, for reporting to the CEO, in good faith, information that discloses or suggests that —
   (a) another person is or may be unfit to drive; or
   (b) it may be dangerous to —
      (i) allow another person to hold a driver’s licence or learner’s permit; or
      (ii) grant a driver’s licence or learner’s permit to another person; or
      (iii) vary, or not to vary, another person’s driver’s licence or learner’s permit.

137. Liability of director etc. of body corporate that is owner of vehicle

(1) In this section —

   director, in relation to a body corporate, includes any person occupying the position of director of the body corporate by whatever name and includes a person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the directors of the body corporate are accustomed to act.

(2) If a person, by reason only of being director of a body corporate, has been required under a road law to discharge any obligation to pay a sum of money that the body corporate was obliged to pay, whether pursuant to a judgment or order of a court or not, that person —
   (a) is entitled to recover from the body corporate any amount so paid as a civil debt due to the person by the body corporate; and
   (b) if any amount so paid cannot be recovered from the body corporate, is entitled to recover contribution from any other director of the body corporate who would have been liable in respect of the amount so paid except that the amount which may be recovered by a director from any other director is not to exceed the proportion of the total amount that that person has paid as one bears to the total number of directors of the body corporate.

(3) Nothing in this section affects the liability of a body corporate that is a responsible person for a vehicle to pay any amount to the CEO in accordance with any of the provisions of a road law.

138. Contracting out prohibited

A provision in, or condition of, any contract that purports to exclude, limit or modify the operation of a road law has no effect but without prejudice to the other provisions or conditions of the contract.

139. Temporary suspension of road law

(1) If a person or club requests the Minister to temporarily suspend the operation of any provision of a road law for the purpose of enabling a race meeting or speed test to take place, the Minister may —

(a) refuse to suspend the provision for such purpose; or

(b) subject to subsection (2), by notice published in the Gazette temporarily suspend the provision for such purpose.

(2) The Minister is not to temporarily suspend the operation of any provision unless the Minister has first obtained the consent of the local government of the district within which the race meeting or speed test will be held.

(3) Any temporary suspension of a provision under this section is subject to such conditions as are specified by the Minister.

(4) Where a person does not comply with a condition under which a provision is temporarily suspended under this section, the provision is to be taken to have effect in relation to that person.

(5) Despite subsection (4), a person who does not comply with a condition under which a provision is temporarily suspended under this section commits an offence.

Penalty: a fine of 12 PU.

(6) The Minister may delegate to the Commissioner of Police or a police officer specified in the instrument of delegation all or any of the powers conferred upon the Minister under subsection (1).
140. Confusing lights affecting traffic on roads

(1) In this section —

Commissioner means the Commissioner of Main Roads; light includes any fire, lamp, light, illuminated sign, street light, or other mechanical manufactured or constructed illumination, and also the glow from any such light;

owner includes the owner, lessee, tenant, purchaser, hirer, or other person in possession or entitled to the possession of a light, and, in the case of a street light, means the local government of the district in which such street light is erected or installed.

(2) If a light is used, kept, burnt, or exhibited at a place or in a manner that in the opinion of the Commissioner is likely to confuse traffic on a road or create circumstances or conditions likely to adversely affect or to cause risk of danger to traffic on a road, the Commissioner may by notice in writing require the owner of or the person in charge of the light or the occupier of the place or premises where the light is used, kept, burnt, or exhibited within a time specified in the notice to take effectual means —

(a) to extinguish the light; or
(b) to remove the light entirely or to some other position; or
(c) to modify the light or to alter its character or colour, or to screen the light to the extent and in the manner as directed by the Commissioner; or
(d) to refrain from using, keeping, burning, or exhibiting the light either entirely or for the period or during the hours as directed by the Commissioner; or (e) to do or refrain from doing any other act, matter, or thing in relation to using, keeping, burning, or exhibiting the light as directed by the Commissioner.

(3) A notice under subsection (2) may be served, either personally or by delivery, at the residence of the person to be served, or by affixing it in some conspicuous place on or near the place or premises upon or in which the light to which the notice relates is used, kept, burnt, or exhibited.

(4) A person who is served with a notice under subsection (2) must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the notice.
Penalty: a fine of 8 PU, and, in addition, a daily penalty of 1 PU for every day or part of a day during which the notice is not complied with after the time specified in the notice for compliance.

(5) If a person served with a notice under subsection (2) fails in any respect to comply with the notice within the time specified in the notice for compliance, the Commissioner or any person authorised in writing by the Commissioner may enter upon the place or premises at which the light to which the notice relates is used, kept, burnt or exhibited, and take effectual means (but doing no unnecessary damage) to carry out and otherwise give effect to the notice to the extent to which it has not been complied with.

(6) Any expense incurred by the Commissioner or the person authorised by the Commissioner under subsection (5) is a debt owing to the Commissioner by the person upon whom the notice was served and is recoverable by the Commissioner in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(7) A person who is injured or whose property is damaged as a result of a light to which a notice under subsection (2) relates confusing traffic on a road or creating circumstances or conditions that adversely affected or caused risk of danger to traffic on a road may, by way of civil proceedings, recover compensation or damages in respect of the injury or damage from a person who was served, but failed to comply with, the notice within the time specified in the notice for compliance.

(8) The omission on the part of the Commissioner to give any notice under subsection (2), or the failure on the part of the Commissioner to exercise the power conferred by subsection (5), does not make the Commissioner responsible or liable in any way for an injury to a person or damage to property that occurred as a result of a light confusing traffic on a road or creating circumstances or conditions that adversely affected or caused risk of danger to traffic on a road.

141. Closure of roads

(1) The Minister may cause a road to be closed for such period that the Minister considers necessary if the Minister considers that the road is unsafe for traffic.

(2) A local government may cause a road in its district to be closed for such period that the local government considers necessary if the local government considers that the road is unsafe for traffic but the road cannot be closed by the local government for more than one month without with the Minister’s written approval to do so.

(3) A person must not drive, take, or use any vehicle on to or on a road while it is closed under subsection (1) or (2).
Penalty: a fine of 50 PU.

142. Liability under other laws
Nothing in a road law takes away or diminishes any liability of the driver of, an owner of, or a responsible person for, a vehicle under any other enactment or at common law.

143A. Confidentiality of information
(1) A person who is or has been engaged in the performance of functions under a road law must not, directly or indirectly, record, disclose or make use of information obtained under a road law except —
(a) for a purpose related to the administration or enforcement of a road law; or
(b) as required or authorised under a road law or another written law; or
(c) with the consent of the person to whom the information relates; or
(d) in circumstances prescribed by the regulations.
Penalty: a fine of 100 PU or imprisonment for 12 months.

(2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the disclosure of statistical or other information that could not reasonably be expected to lead to the identification of any person to whom it relates.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to information relating to particular commercial operations, even if its disclosure could not reasonably be expected to lead to the identification of the commercial operation to which it relates.

[Section 143A inserted by No. 18 of 2011 s. 22; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 224.]

143. Regulations
(1) The Governor may make regulations prescribing any matter that is required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed, or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to the purposes of this Act.
(2) The regulations may make it an offence to contravene a condition imposed by or under the regulations, but this subsection does not limit the other consequences that the regulations may attach to a contravention.

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), regulations may —

(a) impose penalties not exceeding a fine of 64 PU for a first offence, and not exceeding a fine of 96 PU for any subsequent offence, under any regulation made under this Act; and

(b) prescribe matters for or in respect of which fees may be charged or charges may be made under this Act and prescribing the amounts of such fees or charges; and

(a) require a statutory declaration to be made about a matter.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(a), a reference in the Interpretation Act 1984 section 45(1)(f) and (2) to a reduction is to be read as if it included a reference to a deferral.

[Section 143 amended by No. 10 of 2015 s. 8.]

144. Minister’s declarations to apply regulations to areas other than roads etc.

(1) The Minister may declare that a regulation made under a road law and specified in the declaration applies to a specified area of the State that is open to or used by the public.

(2) A declaration has effect for the period specified in it unless it is sooner revoked.

145. Minister’s declarations that specified regulations do not apply to specified persons or vehicles

Regulations may provide for the Minister to declare, in writing in accordance with the regulations, that a specified requirement of the regulations does not apply to a specified person or vehicle.

146. Regulations may refer to published documents

(1) Regulations made for the purposes of this Act may adopt the text of any published document specified in the regulations —

(a) as that text exists at a particular date; or

(b) as that text may from time to time be amended.
(2) The text may be adopted —
   (a) wholly or in part; or
   (b) as modified by the regulations.

(3) The adoption may be direct (by reference made in the regulations), or indirect (by reference made in any text that is itself directly or indirectly adopted).

(4) The adoption of text is of no effect unless —
   (a) the adopted text; and
   (b) if text is adopted as it may be amended from time to time, either —
      (i) the amendments to the text; or
      (ii) the text as amended, can at all reasonable times be inspected or purchased by the public.
