LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

(As amended during consideration in detail and upon reconsideration)

Oaths, Affidavits and Statutory Declarations
Bill 2003

A Bill for

An Act relating to oaths, affidavits and statutory declarations and for related purposes.

The Parliament of Western Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Oaths, Affidavits and Statutory Declarations Act 2003.

5 2. Commencement

This Act comes into operation on a day fixed by proclamation.

3. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears —

“prescribed consular official” means —

- 10
- (a) an Australian Consular Officer, or an Australian Diplomatic Officer, within the meaning of the Consular Fees Act 1955 of the Commonwealth;
 - (b) a British consul or vice consul; or
 - (c) an official prescribed by the regulations to be a
- 15 prescribed consular official.

Part 2 — Oaths and related matters

4. Oaths, general form of

- (1) If under this Act or any other law or the exercise of the Royal Prerogative a person has to take an oath, the form of the oath is to begin with one of the following, according to the person's preference —
- 5
- (a) I swear by Almighty God... ;
 - (b) I swear by [name of a deity recognised by his or her religion]... ;
 - 10 (c) I swear, according to the religion and the beliefs I profess,
- (2) The fact that at the time of taking an oath a person has no religious belief does not affect the validity of the oath.
- (3) Despite subsection (1) a person who has to take an oath may take an oath in any form or manner that he or she wants if the person before whom he or she is to take the oath is satisfied that —
- 15
- (a) the oath will bind the person's conscience; and
 - (b) the person understands the consequences of taking an oath.
- 20
- (4) An oath taken under subsection (3) has the same force and effect as an oath taken in accordance with subsection (1).

5. Affirmation may be made instead of oath

- (1) If under this Act or any other law or the exercise of the Royal Prerogative a person has to or may take an oath, the person is entitled to affirm instead.
- 25
- (2) If under this Act or any other law or the exercise of the Royal Prerogative a person has to take an oath and —
- (a) the person says that the taking of an oath is contrary to his or her religious belief or conscience;
- 30

s. 6

- 5
- (b) it is not reasonably practicable, without inconvenience or delay, at the time when and place where the oath has to be taken, to administer to the person an oath in a manner and form that will bind the person's conscience; or
 - (c) for any other sufficient reason the taking of an oath is found not to be appropriate, the person may be required to affirm instead.

10 (3) An affirmation made instead of an oath has the same force and effect as the oath.

(4) The form of the affirmation is as follows —

I sincerely declare and affirm ... , which words replace those set out in section 4(1) as the beginning of any oath.

15 6. Who may administer oaths and take affirmations

(1) Any person who, alone or with others, constitutes a court, and any person who is acting judicially, may administer an oath to or take the affirmation of any person who appears before the person as a witness.

20 (2) Any registrar or clerk of a court, and any mining registrar appointed under the Mining Act 1978, may administer an oath to or take the affirmation of any person for any purpose.

(3) Any person who may lawfully administer an oath to a person may instead take the affirmation of the person.

25 7. Oaths and affirmations, how administered

(1) The person before whom another person is to take an oath or make an affirmation is to —

30 (a) require the other person to hold up his or her hand and to repeat after the person the words of the oath or affirmation; or

- (b) require the other person to read the oath or affirmation aloud.
- (2) It is not necessary for a person who is taking an oath to hold or touch any religious text while doing so.

Part 3 — Affidavits

8. Definitions

In this Part —

5 “experienced lawyer” means a legal practitioner who has held a practice certificate for at least 2 years and who holds a current practice certificate;

“practice certificate” has the meaning given by the Legal Practice Act 2003.

9. Affidavits, how made

10 (1) Unless another written law provides otherwise, an affidavit for any purpose in this State must be made in accordance with this section.

(2) The affidavit must conclude with a statement that says —

15 (a) it is sworn or affirmed, as the case requires, by the person making it in the presence of an authorised witness; and

(b) where and when it is sworn or affirmed.

(3) The person who is making the affidavit must —

20 (a) sign or personally mark the statement required by subsection (2) and each other page of the affidavit; and

(b) in the presence of an authorised witness, say orally on oath or orally affirm —

(i) that he or she is the person named as the maker of the affidavit;

25 (ii) that the contents of the affidavit are true;

(iii) that the signature or mark is his or hers; and

(iv) if necessary, that any attachment to the affidavit is the attachment referred to in it.

- (4) The requirements of subsection (3)(a) need not be complied with in the presence of an authorised witness.
- (5) After the maker has complied with subsection (3)(b), the authorised witness must —
- 5 (a) under or near the statement required by subsection (2) —
- (i) sign or personally mark the affidavit; and
- (ii) imprint or clearly write his or her name and qualification as an authorised witness;
- 10 and
- (b) sign or personally mark each other page of the affidavit.
- (6) An authorised witness for an affidavit that is made at a place within Western Australia is —
- (a) a Justice of the Peace;
- 15 (b) an experienced lawyer, unless excluded by subsection (7);
- (c) a public notary within the meaning of the Public Notaries Act 1979; or
- (d) any person referred to in section 6(2).
- 20 (7) An experienced lawyer who has participated in any way in preparing an affidavit, or in the proceedings in which an affidavit is intended to be used, is not an authorised witness for the affidavit.
- (8) An authorised witness for an affidavit that is made at a place
- 25 outside Western Australia is —
- (a) a judge of a court of that place, or a magistrate or justice of the peace of or for that place;
- (b) a notary public;
- 30 (c) a prescribed consular official who is performing official functions at that place; or

s. 9

(d) a person who has authority under the law of that place to administer an oath to another person.

(9) Subsections (6), (7) and (8) do not affect any other written law that expressly provides for an affidavit to be made before a person other than a person referred to in the subsections.

Part 4 — Statutory declarations

10. When a statutory declaration may be made

- 5
- (1) A person may make a statutory declaration about any matter at any time, for any purpose and without the need for any legal authority to do so other than this section.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect the operation of any law that requires a person to make a statutory declaration for a purpose.

11. Statutory declarations, how made

- 10
- (1) Unless another written law provides otherwise, a statutory declaration for any purpose in this State must be made in accordance with this section.
- (2) The statutory declaration must be in the form in Schedule 1.
- (3) The person who is making the statutory declaration must —
- 15
- (a) sign or personally mark the statutory declaration; and
- (b) in the presence of an authorised witness declare orally —
- 20
- (i) that he or she is the person named as the maker of the statutory declaration;
- (ii) that the contents of the statutory declaration are true;
- (iii) that the signature or mark is his or hers; and
- (iv) if necessary, that any attachment to the statutory declaration is the attachment referred to in it.
- (4) The requirements of subsection (3)(a) need not be complied with in the presence of an authorised witness.
- 25
- (5) After the maker has complied with subsection (3)(b), the authorised witness must —
- (a) sign or personally mark the statutory declaration; and

s. 11

- (b) imprint or clearly write his or her name and qualification as an authorised witness.
- (6) An authorised witness for a statutory declaration is —
 - (a) for a statutory declaration that is made at a place in Western Australia — any person described in the second column of Schedule 2;
 - (b) for a statutory declaration that is made at a place outside Western Australia but within Australia — any person who under the law of that place, or under the Statutory Declarations Act 1959 of the Commonwealth, has authority to take or receive a statutory, solemn or other declaration;
 - (c) for a statutory declaration that is made at any other place —
 - (i) a prescribed consular official who is performing official functions at that place;
 - (ii) a person who is a justice or notary public under the law of that place;
 - (iii) a person who has authority under the law of that place to administer an oath to another person or to take, receive or witness a statutory, solemn or other declaration.
- (7) Regulations may amend Schedule 2 by adding or deleting or amending any item in it.

Part 5 — Miscellaneous

12. Affidavits and declarations by blind or illiterate people

- 5 (1) If the person making an affidavit or statutory declaration is blind or illiterate, the authorised witness for the document must —
- (a) read the document aloud to the person, or cause the document to be read aloud to the person in the authorised witness's presence;
- 10 (b) satisfy himself or herself that the person understood what was read aloud; and
- (c) certify on the document —
- (i) that the document was read aloud to the person; and
- 15 (ii) that the authorised witness is satisfied that the person understood what was read aloud.
- (2) Subsection (1) is additional to section 9 or 11, as the case may be.

13. Affidavits and declarations by people not conversant with English

- 20 (1) If the person making an affidavit is not sufficiently conversant with English to be able to make the affidavit in English, the person may make the affidavit in another language but the affidavit is not admissible in a court or by a person acting judicially unless —
- 25 (a) the affidavit is translated into written English by a suitably qualified translator; and
- (b) the translator makes an affidavit —
- (i) that sets out his or her qualifications as a translator;
- 30 (ii) that says the English translation is accurate; and
- (iii) that has the English translation attached to it.

s. 14

- (2) Subsection (1), with any necessary changes, applies to and in respect of a statutory declaration as if each reference in the subsection to “affidavit” were a reference to “statutory declaration”.

5 14. Rubber stamp signatures not to be used

- (1) A person who is the maker of, or the witness to, an affidavit or a statutory declaration must not use a rubber or other stamp to make the person’s signature or personal mark.

- 10 (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent a person from using a rubber or other stamp on an affidavit or statutory declaration to imprint the person’s name near the person’s signature or mark to identify whose signature or mark it is.

- 15 (3) An affidavit or statutory declaration that is signed by the maker or witness with a rubber stamp is not admissible in a court or by a person acting judicially.

15. Non-compliance with form or procedure, effect of

- 20 (1) The validity of an oath, affirmation or statutory declaration is not affected by the fact that the person taking or making it does not use the exact words required as long as the words actually used do not materially affect the substance of the exact words and are not likely to mislead.

- 25 (2) The validity of an oath, affirmation, affidavit or statutory declaration is not affected by the fact that the required procedure for taking or making it is not followed exactly as long as the procedure actually followed substantially complies with the required procedure.

16. Pretending to be an authorised witness, offence of

5 If a person who is not an authorised witness for affidavits or for statutory declarations pretends to be, or asserts that he or she is, such an authorised witness in the knowledge that he or she is not, the person commits an offence.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 12 months.

17. Regulations

10 The Governor may make regulations prescribing all matters that are required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed or are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to the purposes of this Act.
