- (3) A person is not criminally responsible under subsection (2) if a reasonable person would consider the distribution of the image to be acceptable, having regard to each of the following (to the extent relevant) —
 - (a) the nature and content of the image;
 - (b) the circumstances in which the image was distributed;
 - (c) the age, mental capacity, vulnerability or other relevant circumstances of the depicted person;
 - (d) the degree to which the accused's actions affect the privacy of the depicted person;
 - (e) the relationship between the accused and the depicted person;
 - (f) any other relevant matters.
- (4) It is a defence to a charge under subsection (2) to prove that —
 - (a) the distribution of the image was for a genuine scientific, educational or medical purpose; or
 - (b) the distribution of the image was reasonably necessary for the purpose of legal proceedings; or
 - (c) the person who distributed the image —
 - (i) distributed the image for media activity purposes; and

- (ii) did not intend the distribution to cause harm to the depicted person; and
 - (iii) reasonably believed the distribution to be in the public interest.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (2) makes it an offence —
- (a) for a member or officer of a law enforcement agency or their agents to distribute an intimate image when acting in the course of their official duties; or
 - (b) for a person to distribute an intimate image in accordance with, or in the performance of the person's functions under, a written law or a law of the Commonwealth or another State or Territory; or
 - (c) for a person to distribute an intimate image for the purposes of the administration of justice.
