Morning

We need the RSPCA to be given far more powers to look into and prevent animal cruelty.

Oscars Law should be looked at and laws set up to deal with Puppy Farms.

So much more needs to happen to highlight our countries direction concerning animal welfare.

Look at Switzerland and Holland and see how pro-active these countries are to work for animals and against cruelty.

For a Western country we are far behind and demonstrate little humanity.

Animal lovers everywhere have little faith in Governments in all states of Australia. Action speaks louder than any words.

Thank you.
