It is with great concern that the chair of this committee is someone who thinks shooting animals for sports is fun and that it should be brought back to WA. I have to wonder how fair and unbiased this review will be when the chair seems to have no concern for animal welfare and one must wonder if the Hon Ricky Mazza is actually trying to get rid of the RSPCA so that he can bring back the "sport" of duck hunting. If you must hold this review then I ask that you at least put someone at the chair that is not everything that the RSPCA (and hundreds of thousands of Western Australians) stands against.

As the Government only supply 6% of the funding for RSPCA I have to ask how much they are spending on this inquiry and whether it is an appropriate use of public money.

I ask that you remove Mr Mazza as chair and replace him with a more appropriate and humane person.
