5230. Mr W.R. Marmion to the Minister for Mines and Petroleum; Energy; Industrial Relations:

I refer to the governments “Plan for our Parks” which will create five million hectares of new national parks, marine parks and other conservation reserves over the next five years, and ask:

- (a) For each of the proposed new parks and conservation reserves planned for under the “Plan for our Parks”, can the Minister provide a list of all existing mining and petroleum tenements affected and the name of the tenement holder;
- (b) Has the Department of Mines, Industry Regulation and Safety (DMIRS) written to all tenement holders affected by the “Plan for our Parks” to advise them that the proposed change to their land tenure has implications under section 24 of the Mining Act 1978;
- (c) Can the Minister advise what the implications under section 24 of the Mining Act 1978 will be for tenement holders holding tenements in the proposed new parks and reserves and will the Minister use his powers to ensure there are no financial implications for any tenement holders;
- (d) Can the Minister advise if DMIRS is assessing the impact that the proposed new parks and reserves may have on access to potential or defined mineral resources and mining related infrastructure on existing tenements;
- (e) Have tenement holders affected by the proposed new parks and reserves been offered the opportunity to provide comments to DMIRS, and if so, how much notice was given and how many responded;
- (f) Will the Minister recommend boundary alterations if DMIRS identify areas of potential mineral and petroleum resources within the proposed new parks and reserves;
- (g) Will the consultation with the general public for the creation of the new parks and reserves include the information on the mineral and petroleum potential assessed by DMIRS and the potential economic consequences; and
- (h) If the answer to (g) is no, will DMIRS provide this information to Parliament when it is completed?

5231. Mr D.C. Nalder to the Minister for Transport; Planning:
