19E. Tabling of amending law taken to be publication for Standing Orders

(1) In this section —

parliamentary committee means a committee established by either or both of the Houses of Parliament.

(2) If a Standing Order of a House of Parliament provides that on the publication of an instrument under a written law the instrument is referred to a parliamentary committee for consideration, the laying of an amending law before the House under section 19A is taken to be publication of the amending law for the purposes of the Standing Order.

(3) This section does not apply if the Standing Orders of the House provide specifically for an amending law to be considered by a parliamentary committee.
