Questions listed for this sitting: -

970. Mr R.S. Love to the Premier:

I refer to the three people who were arrested outside Woodside Chief Executive Meg O'Neill's home last August, and your comments at the time that you were "pleased that people have been taken into custody, and that arrests have been made." Given your Government is funding the Environmental Defenders Office, the same legal centre who represents the three accused in the WA Magistrates Court, I ask:

- (a) How can you justify the $150,000 in taxpayer money this law firm received last financial year from your Government; and
- (b) Will your Government continue to provide taxpayer funds to this firm into the next financial year(s)?
