WESTERN AUSTRALIAN
PLANNING COMMISSION

Members of the WAPC

Mr Terry Martin, Chairman

Terry Martin has 38-years involvement as a town planner in urban and regional affairs in Western Australia, including providing consultancy services to government and private sector clients on planning process, strategy development and policy implementation. Major projects undertaken by Terry include urban design of regions, cities and suburbs for both long term and rapid growth scenarios in Australia, New Zealand and China.

Ms Verity Allan, professions/community representative

Verity Allan is a planning consultant specialising in sustainable development and assessment. Until early June 2003, Verity managed the Housing Industry Association's environment, planning and development service stream and successfully introduced and managed the GreenSmart sustainable building and construction program in Western Australia. Verity has also held senior positions in State and local governments. Her experience has been broadened by appointments to boards and committees over many years.

Ms Carey Curtis, professions/community representative

Carey Curtis is Senior Lecturer with the Department of Urban and Regional Planning at Curtin University. Carey teaches and researches in the field of sustainable transport, including land use and transport integration, travel demand management, transport planning and urban design.

Members of the WAPC

Committee Structure

Cr Corinne MacRae,
metropolitan local government representative

Corinne MacRae has been a Councillor of the Town of Cambridge since 1995, having previously served on the Perth City Council prior to its dissolution in late 1993. In the interim she was a member of the Cambridge Advisory Committee during 1994-95. During her four-years as Town of Cambridge representative on the Western Suburbs District Planning Committee, Corinne chaired the committee for two-years, and in the same period served as a member of the Perth Region Planning Committee.

Cr Judith Tomlinson, non-metropolitan local government representative

Judith Tomlinson has been a Councillor of the Shire of Chittering since 1991. Judith has been appointed to numerous community consultation groups, ranging from local progress associations to representing the Shire at State level meetings, and has developed a broad knowledge of town planning, road infrastructure, water resource management, and environmental issues.

Mr Greg Martin,
Director General, Department for Planning and Infrastructure

Greg Martin was appointed Director General of the Department for Planning and Infrastructure in July 2002, prior to which he was Commissioner of Main Roads Western Australia. Greg has engineering and commerce degrees, a Master of Science and a Graduate Diploma in Urban Systems.

Mr Derek Carew-Hopkins,
A/Chief Executive, Department of Environment

Derek Carew-Hopkins is the Acting Chief Executive of the Department of Environment which includes the Department of Environmental Protection and the Water and Rivers Commission. Derek graduated from the University of Central Queensland with a speciality in water resources. He has spent a large part of his career working for the water agencies in Western Australia and is recognised for his expertise in groundwater management and protection.

Mr Paul Frewer,
Planning professional

Paul Frewer is the Executive Director, Integrated Planning and Policy, Department for Planning and Infrastructure. Paul has worked in private industry, and planning and policy areas of Government. He has extensive experience in land use planning, environmental and natural resource planning, and regional and economic policy. Paul is a member of a number of external boards and committees, and is a member of the Royal Australian Planning Institute.

Cr Kevin Fong,
Regional representative

Kevin Fong has been involved in land and economic development issues, as an advocate for practical reconciliation and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander affairs. This included 10-years with the Commonwealth government and three-years as Director of Management Consulting with a Perth-based national accounting and consulting firm. Kevin was President of the Shire of Broome from 1999 to May 2003.

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN
PLANNING COMMISSION

Committee Structure

Section 19 of the Western Australian Planning Commission Act 1985 prescribes five statutory committees with certain roles and functions.

All committee membership is shown as at 30 June 2003.

Executive, Finance and Property Committee

The Committee performs the administrative, financial and property functions of the WAPC. Most of its activities centre on monitoring development projects, the acquisition and disposal of property and associated capital works. The Committee met 28 times during the year and considered 342 reports.

Mr Kim Taylor
Department of Environmental Protection

The WAPC has also created a number of regional and special purpose committees to assist with its land use planning activities across the State. Committees may have specific tasks or be established, as needed, to address a one-off situation. The power to create a committee is provided under section 19 of the Western Australian Planning Commission Act 1985. The WAPC sets the membership and terms of reference for these committees.

The authority to make decisions is given by the WAPC to some committees under a delegation arrangement that is provided in section 20 of the Western Australian Planning Commission Act 1985.

Part of implementing the Metropolitan Region Scheme concerns the management of land reserved and bought for parks and recreation. Of all the regional parklands owned and managed by the WAPC, two parks - Whiteman Park and Araluen Botanic Park - have management boards overseeing activities.

Central Perth Planning Committee

The Committee was established to oversee and provide direction for planning in the Perth Central Area. It exercises delegated authority to deal with the City of Perth town planning scheme and scheme amendments; the Metropolitan Region Scheme and amendments; subdivisions, strata titles, leases and licences; and development on reserved land within the City of Perth. The Committee met 10 times during the year and considered 44 reports.
