

Since the start of 2024, the Cook Labor Government has delivered new or upgraded STEM facilities at 33 public schools to give to allow young West Australians the best possible opportunity to develop their skills in the critical curriculum areas of science, maths, and technology.

New or refurbished primary school science classrooms have been delivered to schools across the State, including:

- Bridgetown Primary School
- Brentwood Primary School
- Kardinya Primary School
- Richmond Primary School
- Coogee Primary School
- Samson Primary School
- Winthrop Primary School
- Carine Primary School
- Churchlands Primary School
- Wembley Downs Primary School
- Beckenham Primary School
- East Kenwick Primary School
- Parkwood Primary School
- Rostrata Primary School
- Kelmscott Primary School
- Neerigen Brook Primary School
- Thornlie Primary School
- Wirrabirra Primary School
- Bayswater Primary School
- Beechboro Primary School
- East Beechboro Primary School
- Cottesloe Primary School
- Eddystone Primary School
- Mullaloo Heights Primary School
- Hollywood Primary School
- Poseidon Primary School
- Quinns Rocks Primary School
- West Morley Primary School
- Illawarra Primary School

New or upgraded secondary STEM or science laboratories have also been delivered at:

- Esperance Senior High School
- Kalamunda Senior High School
- Coodanup College
- Beverley District High School

