

PUBLIC SECTOR REFORM BILL 2009

Third Reading

MR R.F. JOHNSON (Hillarys — Leader of the House) [12.49 pm]: On behalf of the Premier, I move —

That the bill be now read a third time.

MR D.A. TEMPLEMAN (Mandurah) [12.49 pm]: I realise that this debate will be interrupted for private members' statements very shortly. I am, of course, not the lead speaker on the Public Sector Reform Bill 2009 for the opposition, but I would like to make some brief comments about the bill. We have had a very good debate on this bill throughout this week, with some interesting amendments put. I note that there were some successful amendments that were agreed to by members of the government and the opposition working together. I think it is true to say that this bill has been highlighted as being a very important bill.

Debate interrupted, pursuant to standing orders.
