

LIQUOR LICENSING APPLICATIONS

8247. Dr A.D. Buti to the Minister for Racing and Gaming

In relation to the time taken in determining liquor licensing applications, for applications that reached final determination in each of the years 2009–2010, 2010–2011 and 2011–2012:

- (a) how many applications were determined in less than three months;
- (b) how many applications were determined within three to six months;
- (c) how many applications were determined within six months to one year;
- (d) how many applications were determined within one year and eighteen months;
- (e) how many applications were determined within eighteen months to two years;
- (f) how many applications were determined within two years and thirty months;
- (g) how many applications were determined within thirty months to three years; and
- (h) did any applications take more than three years to be determined and, if so, what was the specific duration for each application determination in excess of three years?
