

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ADVISORY BOARD — CONFLICT-OF-INTEREST REQUIREMENTS

406. Mr D.A. TEMPLEMAN to the Minister for Local Government:

I have a supplementary question. Is this not further evidence that the minister's amalgamation agenda is being made up on the run and that he will do whatever he can and has to do, no matter how unscrupulous he may have to be?

Mr A.J. SIMPSON: No. I have used the tools available to me in the Local Government Act 1995; it is all there in black and white.
