

PLAN FOR PEEL — CRISIS ACCOMMODATION CAPACITY

1329. Mr Z.R.F. Kirkup to the Minister for Prevention of Family and Domestic Violence:

I refer to the Labor “Plan for Peel” and ask:

- (a) Does the Government still intend to Increase the capacity in crisis accommodation in Mandurah to strengthen service responses and ensure that women and children facing family and domestic violence can access appropriate services:
  - (i) If yes, what steps have been taken by the Minister or representatives of the Minister’s office, departments or agencies to increase crisis accommodation;
  - (ii) If yes, what meetings have been taken by the Minister or representatives of the Minister’s office, department or agencies with Mandurah service providers to discuss the increase in crisis accommodation:
    - (A) (A) Where were those meetings held, on what date and who was present;
  - (iii) If yes, have any locations been identified for the increases in crisis accommodation and if so what are those locations:
    - (B) (A) If no, why not;
  - (iv) If no, why not?

Ms S.F. McGurk replied:

The McGowan Labor Government made a strong commitment to the Peel region during the election campaign and released the comprehensive Plan for Peel. The Government looks forward to progressing and delivering its commitments and is currently working through the budget process to do so.
