

EDUCATION RESOURCES — ARMADALE SCHOOLS

453. Dr A.D. BUTI to the Premier:

I have a supplementary question. If the Premier cannot name the Armadale schools that will allegedly benefit from his cuts in education, perhaps he can name the schools in Armadale that he intends to amalgamate?

Mr C.J. BARNETT replied:

I have not visited and met with the education leaders in Armadale. I intend to do so.

Dr A.D. Buti: You said you were going to amalgamate, and the principals are all worried!

Mr C.J. BARNETT: I will tell members one person who will not be there—the member for Armadale! He will not be there because he will behave just like this—just as he did when the police minister went out there, with bad behaviour!

The SPEAKER: We are getting nowhere.

Dr A.D. Buti: Don't walk down the main street of Armadale.

The SPEAKER: Thank you very much! Member for Armadale, I call you to order for the first time.

Mr C.J. BARNETT: On Friday I did walk down the main street of Armadale. I was welcomed warmly and met lots of people. They were all looking forward to kicking out the Labor government in Canberra, and they did.
