

CAMMS — STATE COAT OF ARMS USE

137. Mr D.A. Templeman to the Premier:

- (1) Is the Premier aware that the website of the company known as CAMMS, a private provider of products and services, displays the State Coat of Arms?
- (2) Is the Premier aware that use of the State Coat of Arms is restricted under the Armorial Bearings Protection Act 1979?
- (3) Was approval given to this company to display the State Coat of Arms?
- (4) If yes, who gave the approval?
- (5) If no, will this company be asked to remove the State Coat of Arms from its website and from any other promotional literature of its products and services?

Mr C.J. Barnett replied:

Department of the Premier and Cabinet advises:

- (1) No
- (2) Yes
- (3) No
- (4) Not applicable.
- (5) The Department of the Premier and Cabinet has advised that when this matter was raised with the company on 6 May 2013, the State Coat of Arms was removed from this website. The Department of Commerce has also contacted the company and advised them of their obligations under the Australian Consumer Law.
