

Division 2: Parliamentary Commissioner for Administrative Investigations —

[Supplementary Information No A1.]

Question: Mr E.S Ripper asked: Of the 182 child death notifications to the Ombudsman in the last few years, how many of those children had had contact with the Department for Child Protection?

Answer: Of the 182 child death notifications to the Ombudsman, in 96 of these cases the child, or a relative of the child, had contact with the Department for Child Protection.