

LOCAL GOVERNMENT AMALGAMATIONS — DADOUR PROVISIONS

595. Mr D.A. TEMPLEMAN to the Premier:

My supplementary question to the Premier is: in this Parliament, will the Premier be bringing to this house amendments to the Dadour poll provisions—yes or no?

Mr C.J. BARNETT replied:

The member asked the question; I will choose how I answer it. That is the way Parliament works.

Mr D.A. Templeman: Yes or no?

Mr C.J. BARNETT: I would —

Several members interjected.

The SPEAKER: Members!

Mr C.J. BARNETT: I will not answer, Mr Speaker.

An opposition member interjected.

Mr C.J. BARNETT: You just interrupt when I go to answer it.

The SPEAKER: Member for Willagee, I call you to order for the first time. Premier, do you wish to add anything?

Mr C.J. BARNETT: No, Mr Speaker.

Several members interjected.

The SPEAKER: Members! It might be a short meeting for you, member for Girrawheen.
