

FAMILY AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE — GOVERNMENT ACTION PLAN

759. Ms S.F. McGURK to the Minister for Women's Interests:

I refer to the government's recently launched 20-point action plan to combat family and domestic violence. Given that the existing services working in this area are already stretched, what additional resources have been allocated to implement this plan to ensure that the unacceptable rate of family and domestic violence is halted?

Mrs L.M. HARVEY replied:

As I have explained to the member for Fremantle previously, the policy area around the provision of services in the domestic violence space is held by my colleague Hon Helen Morton in the Legislative Council. So the member will need to put that question on notice to her.

Mrs M.H. Roberts: You're the Minister for Women's Interests!

Mrs L.M. HARVEY: And Minister for Police.

Several members interjected.

The SPEAKER: Member for Midland, I call you to order for the first time, member for Warnbro for the first time, and member for West Swan for the first time.
