

PARLIAMENTARY SITTING DATES 2018

Statement by Leader of the House

MR D.A. TEMPLEMAN (Mandurah — Leader of the House) [2.01 pm]: I rise to inform members of the parliamentary sitting dates for 2018. As has been the usual practice for a number of years, the dates are divided into autumn and spring sittings, with a six-week break in July and early August next year. Generally, the house is scheduled to sit for two or three weeks followed by a one-week or two-week recess, sitting around scheduled school holiday periods. Twenty sitting weeks are scheduled for the Legislative Assembly next year, with an additional week in May set aside for budget estimates committees. The autumn sittings will commence on Tuesday, 13 February and conclude on Thursday, 28 June. The spring sittings are scheduled from Tuesday, 14 August to Thursday, 29 November. For the information of members, I table the 2018 parliamentary sitting dates.
