

PERTH STADIUM — LIQUOR REGULATIONS

123. Mr J.E. McGRATH to the Minister for Sport and Recreation:

I have a supplementary question. It is very interesting that it was such an insignificant issue that the Minister for Sport and Recreation went to The Sunday Times and had a big column right down the outside—a very insignificant issue!

Point of Order

Mr D.A. TEMPLEMAN: Supplementary questions are just that—supplementary. There has been no question.

The SPEAKER: Sorry, I was talking to the Clerk.

Questions without Notice Resumed

Mr J.E. McGRATH: I am now about to proceed to the supplementary question.

So give us an answer, Minister for Sport and Recreation. Will the minister and his government be supporting, through the Liquor Commission, the right for anyone who goes to the new stadium to buy a full-strength beer or not? Yes or no?

Mr M.P. MURRAY replied:

I will repeat it again. It is not the position of government to make this decision. It is a decision of the Liquor Commission, and I do not think, quite honestly, that we should be interfering with its business. It is a separate entity and it will make that decision with or without our opinions.

The SPEAKER: That is the end of question time.
