

MEMBER FOR COLLIE-WELLINGTON

Donation to Collie RoadWise - Personal Explanation

MR M.P. MURRAY (Collie-Wellington - Parliamentary Secretary) [2.41 pm] - by leave: I thank the house for the opportunity. I refer to the $1 000. I will furnish my bank statements to show that it came out of my personal account transferred across to my cheque account.

I will also make another little statement. There are some people on the other side who should not drive home after too many red wines, because I will be informing the police.

Several members interjected.

The SPEAKER: Order, members! Clearly, the last part -

Mr C.J. Barnett interjected.

The SPEAKER: Can the member for Cottesloe not see me standing? Member for Collie-Wellington, clearly the last part of that statement is not part of the personal explanation.

We now move to orders of the day.

Several members interjected.

The SPEAKER: Members, the level of noise means that we cannot even put a question because everyone wants to have their little say about whatever they want to say. We want to proceed with the business of this house. If members want to comment, they should comment elsewhere.

Mr C.J. Barnett interjected.

The SPEAKER: Order! I call the member for Cottesloe to order for the third time. The question is that order of the day 1 be taken.
