

SPORT AND RECREATION — GET ONBOARD AND LEAD PROGRAM

4868. Mr P.J. Rundle to the Minister for Seniors and Ageing; Volunteering; Sport and Recreation:

I refer to the Get Onboard and Lead (GOAL) program established by the Liberal–National Government in 2016 and I ask:

- (a) Does the GOAL advisory group still exist and how often does it meet;
- (b) If yes to (a), who are the current advisory group members;
- (c) Which Minister(s) does the advisory group report to;
- (d) What work has the GOAL advisory group done in response to the National Sport and Recreation Ministers' December 2018 agreement of a target of 50 percent women in leadership position;
- (e) What is the anticipated time frame for release of a strategy to assist the WA sport and recreation industry meet the new target;
- (f) Has the Department or the Minister set any specific Key Performance Indicators to measure the success of the GOAL program;
- (g) If yes to (f) please provide a breakdown of KPI's measured across the program;
- (h) Have any specific agreements been put in place between the Department and State Sporting Associations (SSA's) to achieve the new 50 percent target; and
- (i) If yes to (h), please table the agreements?

Mr M.P. Murray replied:

- (a) No. The Gender Diversity Advisory Group was established in 2018 to guide the Case for Change and support the implementation of targets for women in leadership.
- (b) Not Applicable.
- (c) Not Applicable.
- (d) Not Applicable. The Department and the work of the Gender Diversity Advisory Group, in the development and release of the Case for Change and Women in Leadership Governance Training did influence the discussions that led to the December 2018 announcement.
- (e) The industry has been consulted through the Strategic Funding Review which includes Gender Diversity as a key outcome. The document will be finalised by the end of April 2019 and the Departments supporting strategy will include timeframes for implementation of targets.
- (f) Not Applicable.
- (g) Not Applicable.
- (h) No, in anticipation of the release of the Strategic Funding Review.
- (i) Not Applicable.
