

ABORIGINAL AFFAIRS — LANDS TRUST RESERVES

1106. Hon Neil Thomson to the Leader of the House representing the Minister for Aboriginal Affairs:

For all reserves held by the Aboriginal Lands Trust in March 2017, by means of a table, will the Minister please provide the following information:

- (a) the reserve number;
- (b) land identifying number;
- (c) the reserve common name (where one is known);
- (d) the reserve area;
- (e) the reserve resident population (estimate only);
- (f) number of leases issued over the reserve (where relevant);
- (g) the Native Title prescribed body corporate where relevant;
- (h) whether the reserve (as of 1 November 2022) has been divested to the Prescribed Body Corporate or other Aboriginal Corporation; and
- (i) where a reserve is not yet divested estimated date of divestment?

Hon Sue Ellery replied:

(a)–(h) [See tabled paper no 2010.]

- (i) Divestment is engagement led and framed by the legislative requirements of the Aboriginal Affairs Planning Authority Act 1972. Divestment only occurs after extensive consultation with the relevant Aboriginal stakeholders and is dependent on their capacity and readiness to accept.
