

DR ROBERT FINLAY-JONES

442. Hon Jim Scott to the Parliamentary Secretary representing the Minister for Health

Is the psychiatrist Dr Robert Finlay-Jones, who has been banned from practise in New South Wales, allowed to continue to practise in Western Australia?

Hon LJILJANNA RAVLICH replied:

Dr Robert Finlay-Jones has not been registered with the Medical Board of Western Australia since 13 December 2001 and has therefore not been entitled to practice in Western Australia since that date.
