

LATE-NIGHT TRAINS

Question without Notice 28 — Correction of Answer

HON JIM CHOWN (Agricultural — Parliamentary Secretary) [5.05 pm]: Yesterday I provided an answer to question without notice 28. The answer was based on incorrect advice that was provided by the Public Transport Authority to the Minister for Transport. I wish to amend the answers provided to parts (1) and (2).

Hon Ken Travers interjected.

Hon JIM CHOWN: Hon Ken Travers should just be quiet for a minute.

The answers are—

- (1)–(2) The 1.15 am service is not a free train service; however the Public Transport Authority does not enforce payment. The 2.15 am late-night service is free. The Minister for Transport has instructed the PTA to formalise the 1.15 am arrangement to ensure services are officially free from 20 February.
