

TYRES — STORAGE — BELMONT

708. Mrs A.K. HAYDEN to the Premier:

I have a supplementary question.

The SPEAKER: Treasurer!

Several members interjected.

The SPEAKER: Sorry. It was such a roar from that side of the chamber. I call you to order, Minister for Water.

Mrs A.K. HAYDEN: I am glad the Premier has given a reassurance to clean up the mess that has been created by this tyre scam for the residents, the landlords but also the environment. Can I ask: how much taxpayers' money will be lost due to the tyre scam that has been undertaken by the former member Mr Barry Urban?

The SPEAKER: I do not know whether that is a supplementary question. No, it is not.

Mr D.J. Kelly interjected.

The SPEAKER: Order! Minister for Water, I call you to order for the second time. I think you should be watching more Twitter instead of interjecting.

That is the end of question time.
