

TRAIN STATIONS — PAID PARKING — INFRINGEMENTS

848. Hon KEN TRAVERS to the parliamentary secretary representing the Minister for Transport:

- (1) How many parking infringements has the Public Transport Authority issued since 1 July 2014?
- (2) How many were for failing to pay the $2 parking fee?
- (3) How many were for parking outside of a marked bay?
- (4) How many were for other reasons, and what were those reasons?

Hon JIM CHOWN replied:

I thank the honourable member for some notice of this question.

- (1) The Public Transport Authority has issued a total of 645 infringement notices since the introduction of paid parking on 1 July 2014.
- (2) The number is 317.
- (3) The number is 260.
- (4) The number of infringement notices issued for other reasons is 68, as follows: failing to display an ACROD permit; parking in a car bay designated for a different class of vehicle; exceeding specified time limits; parking in a no-standing area; parking contrary to signage; failing to comply with a direction to move; and obstruction of access.
