

MINISTERS OF THE CROWN, DIARY SOFTWARE, SECURITY OF INFORMATION

210. Mr P.D. Omodei to the Attorney General; Minister for Health; Electoral Affairs

Will the Attorney-General advise of the following -

- (a) does the Attorney-General's office use software to act as a diary or calendar to store information regarding the Attorney-General's meetings and appointments;
- (b) are details, such as names, of the people who attend these meetings ever recorded using this software; and
- (c) does this software have a search function capable of identifying names recorded, such as those people who have, or will be, meeting with the Attorney-General?

Mr J.A. McGINTY replied:

- (a) Yes.
- (b) Yes, as far as practicable, based on the information available at the time the meeting or appointment is organised.
- (c) Yes.
