

LAND AND PUBLIC WORKS LEGISLATION AMENDMENT BILL 2022

949. Hon WILSON TUCKER to the Leader of the House representing the Minister for Lands:

Could the minister please provide the house with a breakdown of the government's consultation with stakeholders during the drafting of the proposed Land and Public Works Legislation Amendment Bill 2022, including the names of each stakeholder consulted; the method of engagement, whether in person or through written correspondence; and the date of each interaction?

Hon SAMANTHA ROWE replied:

On behalf of the Leader of the House, I thank the honourable member for some notice of the question and provide the following answer on behalf of the Minister for Lands.

Extensive consultation has been undertaken during drafting, including with the pastoral, mining and energy industries, native title groups, the conservation industry, associated peak bodies in these sectors, and any other interested parties. This includes multiple briefings held at the Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre. The proposed bill will deliver a range of benefits developed in ongoing consultation with key industries over a number of years. Consultation on the draft bill is currently open and ongoing.
